COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook(s) Required: For this course, we will be using a platform called Top Hat that is included through A&M-Commerce's Inclusive Access fee, which was charged to your bursar account when you registered for this course. You will not need to make any additional purchases. Top Hat will be accessible through our course shell in D2L. While you will receive an email about being able to opt out of this inclusive access, Top Hat is required for the course. To gain access to Top Hat, you will create an account using your LeoMail (university email) when you receive an email from the campus bookstore. Be on the lookout for this email at the start of the semester. If you have any issues with Top Hat, you should contact support@tophat.com.

The join code for our course section is: 398730

Through Top Hat, you will gain access to the following course materials:

Johnson, Gavin P., Ashanka Kumari, Emily Littlejohn, Brian McShane, and Rachel McShane, Eds. Writing Inquiry [2023 edition]. Top Hat.

Software Required:

- D2L
- Top Hat
- LeoMail
- A word processing program: Students have free access to Office 365.

Course Description

ENGL 1301: College Reading and Writing. Three semester hours. Introduces students to writing as an extended, complex, recursive process and prepares students for English 1302, which more rigorously examines the forms and structures of argument and means to approaching multiple audiences. In 1301 students will write weekly, and will work on essay organization and development. The course will emphasize close reading, summarizing, and analysis of expository texts, including student writing.

Core Curriculum Course Objectives

Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;

Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;

Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;

Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

English 1301 Learning Outcomes

1. Define important terms/concepts including, but not limited to, literacy, sponsor, code-switching, code-meshing, embodiment, and writing processes;
2. Discuss the ways these terms expand based on cultural and communicative practices;
3. Examine scholarly, personal, and/or multimodal course texts that detail varying understandings and applications of key terms/concepts;
4. Develop writing processes that allow for personal exploration of key terms/concepts;
5. Engage in collaboration that supports individualized and communal understanding and writing development;
6. Consider the various affordances and constraints of composing using different technologies (analog, digital, and/or multimodal), practices, styles, and/or languages;
7. Compose texts across different genres and media of writing that further expand key terms/concepts based on personal experiences and engagement with important course texts;
8. Reflect on your writing experiences and literacy practices;
9. Design individualized learning goals appropriate for a first-year writing course;

10. Assess individualized learning goals based on labor and performance alongside feedback from peers and the instructor.

Instructional Methods

I prefer a student-centered approach to teaching—this class is about you and your learning experience. This class is delivered face-to-face, and therefore, I will spend some of my time lecturing at the front of the classroom, and the rest of class time will be spent with students engaging with me and each other through critical discussion on the day’s topics and readings.

These student leading discussions on the readings, assignments, and papers will be done with my guidance, as I will delegate the groups (if this is group work) and facilitate the discussions as the instructor. Students will also be peer-reviewing each other’s papers. In addition, the course information builds as we proceed with each new reading and/or chapter. Therefore, it is imperative that students come to class with the proper materials and having already read and/or completed the assignment.

I know that a lot of this may seem intimidating, do not worry, I am here to help my students and guide all of you. I remember being in your position very well and I want everyone to know that I am in your corner, this course may be challenging, and some may get frustrated, but we can only grow through facing challenges ☺

Student/Class Civility Policy

Your instructor reserves the right to ask any student to leave class if any student proves distracting, hostile, and/or disruptive to either the instructor and/or classmates. If a student is asked to leave, the student will meet with the instructor during the instructor’s office hours before returning to class.

If incivility occurs during group work, ALL parties will meet in my office, and the student(s) at fault may or may not receive a “0” for the assignment(s).

I have ZERO (0) TOLERANCE FOR BULLYING OR HARRASSMENT OF ANY AND ALL FORMS.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

As an instructor, my approach to classroom assessment is ...

Midterm and final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

TOTAL 100%

Student-led discussions and presentations on the reading essays will earn 5 extra points.

Assignments

Full prompts for assignments are available in Top Hat and/or D2L.

Writing Histories and Your Goals Reflection: This first writing assignment, invites you to compose a short reflection that addresses each of the following prompts in a well-thought-out, polished piece of academic writing. You will return to this reflection throughout the semester to review and reassess your goals for the course.

Rhetorical Analysis Projects: This project contains two parts—a group project and an individual essay. For the group project, create a multi-modal advertisement that utilizes at least 2 rhetorical appeals. Consider your audience supportive. For the second part, individually write a 1-2-page, double-spaced essay arguing that the rhetorical appeals in your advertisement successfully (or unsuccessfully) persuaded the target audience.

Narrating Your Literacies: For this assignment, you will create your own short Literacy Narrative. Identify a discourse you are a part of, and what knowledge, skills, or things you need to be a part of that discourse. Then talk about people, places, things, or events that helped you become a part of that group.

Reading a Body's Rhetoric: In a short composition, tell the story of your body OR in a short composition, analyze the way a piece of media (news report, political speech, meme, advertisement) "reads" a body.

Semester Portfolio: Compose a portfolio that documents and reflects your writing and learning throughout English 1301. For this portfolio, first gather all your writing assignments as well as your instructor's feedback on your writing. You will include four (4) of these assignments in this portfolio, so keep them clearly labeled and nearby.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with Dr. Gavin P. Johnson, the Director of Writing (gavin.johnson@tamuc.edu). In the case when the Director of Writing is the instructor, the student should contact Dr. Hunter Hayes, Chair of the Department of Literature and Languages (hunter.hayes@tamuc.edu). Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 (“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”).

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Nondiscrimination Notice

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

AI Use in Courses (Draft)

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Collection of Data for Measuring Institutional Effectiveness

To measure the level of compliance with the university's Institutional Effectiveness guidelines, throughout the semester, I will collect some of the ungraded texts you produce. The texts will be part of a portfolio created on your behalf and will be measured to ensure that our program "promotes practices that result in higher student academic achievement; an enhanced student experience; aligned and transparent decisions; and readily available information for improvement, accountability, and accreditation" (see "Department of Institutional Effectiveness," <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutus/institutionalEffectiveness/default.aspx>). This is solely an assessment of program effectiveness and in no way affects students' course grades or GPAs.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

RESOURCES

A&M-Commerce Supports Students' Mental Health

The Counseling Center at A&M-Commerce, located in the Halladay Building, Room 203, offers counseling services, educational programming, and connection to community resources for students. Students have 24/7 access to the Counseling Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.tamuc.edu/counsel

Writing Center

The Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. In fact, we work from the premise that all writers, no matter their ability level, benefit from the feedback of knowledgeable readers. The Writing Center staff is trained to provide writers with just this service. In short, we are here to help you help yourself. The Writing Center offers one-on-one sessions with writers—both face-to-face and online—begin on the hour and last up to 45 minutes. You cannot sign up for back-to-back appointments, but you may sign up for as many appointments as you'd like each day and week. For more information, visit <https://www.tamuc.edu/writing-center>
