COURSE INFORMATION

Required Textbook

For this course, we will be using a platform called Top Hat that is included through TAMUC's Inclusive Access. This is the same online book used for 1301. No new purchase required unless you did not gain access previously. Through Top Hat, you will gain access to the following required course materials:

- Writing Inquiry 3rd Edition. Fountainhead Press, 2023

To gain access to Top Hat, it is your responsibility to create an account when you receive an email from the campus bookstore at the start of the semester. If you have any issues with Top Hat, you should contact support@tophat.com

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Additional Required Materials

- Course readings (articles, excerpts) made available via D2L
- Digital storage (flash drive, cloud storage, etc.)

Note: You should check your email and D2L daily for updates pertaining to ENG 1302.

Course Description

ENG 1302 - GLB/US-Written Argument/Research

Hours: 3

This course provides students with advanced training in communication skills emphasizing the writing and reading of argumentative prose and adapting writing to alternate audiences. Students will write weekly, including such texts as journals, reading response logs, summaries of argumentative texts, argumentative papers, and longer papers integrating secondary research. Activities include close reading of sample texts, both student and professional. Some sections will emphasize special topics in both reading and writing. Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in English 1301 or advanced placement or CLEP.

Student Learning Outcomes

Through a mixture of reading, writing, and discussion throughout the semester, students will:

- analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
- A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure in written, oral, and/or visual communication,
- work together toward a shared purpose relevant to the course or discipline with a sense of shared responsibility for meeting that purpose.
- understand and practice academic honesty
- view themselves as engaged citizen-writer-researchers whose actions impact their communities.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need regular access to the internet, digital storage (hardware or cloud storage), a valid working TAMUC email address, knowledge of D2L, and a computer with a word processing software.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I will work to respond to emails quickly during the week for this class. Please nudge me with a second email if a considerable amount of time has passed and you have not heard from me.

Writing Center

The TAMUC Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. In fact, we work from the premise that all writers, no matter their ability level, benefit from the feedback of knowledgeable readers. The Writing Center staff is trained to provide writers with just this service. In short, we are here to help you help yourself. The Writing Center offers one-on-one sessions with writers—both face-to-face and online—begin on the hour and last up to 45 minutes. You cannot sign up for back-to-back appointments (for instance, you cannot sign up for sessions at both 1 p.m. and 2 p.m.), but you may sign up for as many appointments as you'd like each day and week. For more information, visit <https://www.tamuc.edu/writing-center>

COURSE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus and course schedule are guides. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus and course schedule during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus and course schedule will be announced in advance.

Attendance Policy

As mentioned earlier, active participation is the key to success in this section of ENG 1302: GLB/US-Written Argument/Research. Therefore, timeliness is required for assignments. Consistently failing to actively participate or submit assignments on time will impede your ability to pass this class.

Late Work

It is imperative to our success as a class that your assignments are turned in on time. The acceptance and assessment of late work in this section of ENG 1302: GLB/US-Written Argument/Research is on a case-by-case basis. Late work will result in a grade reduction at the discretion of the instructor. Consistently turning in late work will impede your ability to pass the class. Extensions for the final exam are unavailable and Incompletes are reserved for extreme circumstances.

Statement on Antiracism

This course discusses things like economic class, educational opportunities, and other aspects of access to literacy that present a racial disparity in America. It is the position of this class to identify such structural deficiencies as wrong. This subject will potentially cause some discomfort, so please be patient as we discuss these topics together. This course does not tolerate willful insensitive language with respect to sex, race, gender, or orientation, but does attempt to understand how things like racism and sexism create barriers for people.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
