Course Description

Home and Family Living. Three semester hours. Functional study of modern family with special attention to roles, marriage preparation and partner selection. Emphasis on marital adjustment and other essentials of successful home and family life. Examination of current, relative issues of human relations including family planning, sex education, divorce, communications, and marriages under special circumstances.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. To introduce students to the diverse definition of “family.”
2. To help students understand the various theoretical perspectives on families.
3. To help students develop an awareness of how gender and women’s roles have changed throughout history.
4. To develop an awareness of current statistical trends regarding the proportion of singles in the United States.
5. To develop an awareness of the value that Americans place on marriage and attitudes related to change.
6. Describe family characteristics associated with resilience.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class, you will utilize the Learning Management System (LMS) entitled D2L for portions of instructional and learning methods, submitting assignments, participating in online discussions, and completing quizzes. You will need to utilize other technologies such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, etc. If you have issues with this system, it is your responsibility to contact the help desk immediately.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of lecture and didactic learning methods, small group discussions, and class assignments coupled with experiential learning and application. You will be expected to participate and complete all online tasks via D2L. In addition to this, small lecture, discussion, activities, and workshops may be utilized during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible for the active learning process. Expectations of this course include the following:

1. You are expected to always display professionalism. Be respectful of your professor and peers. Be open to feedback, as you will receive this throughout the program.
2. Prepare for classes. Complete readings prior to class time.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

3. Complete all assignments by the deadline.
4. Adhere to the university student code of conduct.
5. You are expected to participate in all online discussions/activities.
6. All writing assignments must be done according to APA 6th edition.
7. Regularly check your university email. My suggestion is to check this at least once a day as your instructors and others from the department and University may contact you.
8. Begin your readings ASAP. Sometimes it may take more than one attempt to digest the material.
9. Deadlines are the last possible moment something is due—not the first moment to start. Work ahead. I realize this may not always be possible; however, when you can, do so.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Syllabus Quiz	10%
Discussions	20%
Weekly Quizzes	50%
Family of Origin	20%
TOTAL	100%

Assessments

Syllabus Quiz

This quiz is to ensure you are familiar with the syllabus and university policies.

Post Test

You will have a total of 15 posttests over the course of the semester. Posttests are due Sundays by 11:59 p.m. If you fail to submit your test on time, you will receive a zero. There may be multiple choice, true/false, and short answer responses. You will have 60 minutes for each posttest and one attempt.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Discussions

Discussions will be posted throughout the course. These discussions will address various topics. You are required to contribute meaningful input to each discussion.

Family of Origin Activity

Respond to the following prompts as you consider your family of origin:

1. Describe your family of origin. Who were your major caretakers? Do you have any siblings? If so, list the birth order of siblings in your family.
2. If your parents were living during your childhood, were they separated, divorced, or living together? If they were separated or divorced, how old were you when the separation or divorce occurred and how did it impact your family?
3. Describe your earliest childhood memory. What was your age at the time?
4. How would you describe yourself as a child?
5. In what ways does your family identify with a cultural, ethnic, racial, or religious/spiritual heritage?
6. What roles did your family assign to individual members (“the smart one”, “the athlete”, “the depressed one”, “the boss”)? How would you define your role?
7. How important is education in your family?
8. Describe an important family ritual or tradition?
9. How did your family handle conflict or problems?
10. What did your family do together for vacations or to have fun?
11. How did your family celebrate birthdays? Holidays?

This paper must be in APA format 7th edition, which means Times New Roman font, size 12, and 1” margins all around. Please answer all questions fully, 5-8 sentences per question is appropriate. Please make the response to each question a new paragraph. Make sure that you proof your paper. Please upload to D2L. Please note that I will not accept late assignments.

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
