COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

Agricultural and Youth Leadership. Application of leadership principles with emphasis on interpersonal and personal skills, organizational structure, and working with youth in FFA and 4-H Club activities.

Learning Outcomes

This course is designed to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes required to organize, plan, coordinate, deliver, and evaluate co-curricular and non-formal educational programs in youth development and leadership. The roles and responsibilities of advisors for youth organizations as well as practical and motivational aspects of experiential learning will be included. Upon completion of this courses, students should be able to:

- Define leadership and apply basic principles of leadership to a secondary agriculture program
- Describe leadership theories
- Explain the importance of autonomy and youth voice through leadership activities
- Plan, coordinate, deliver, and evaluate FFA & 4-H leadership activities

Course Textbook/Materials

None required. All materials will be available on myLeo Online (D2L).
The Official FFA Manual is available through www.ffa.org online for free.

Course Specific Procedures

General Policies

- The use of any tobacco products is strictly prohibited in all classrooms and laboratories.
- Hats and caps should be removed while in class.
- Please suspend the use of all electronic devices during lecture other than for notetaking.
- No late work will be accepted in this course without pre-approval from the instructor.

Professionalism

Professionals in the agricultural sciences and natural resources sector are guided by certain values and characteristics. Professional characteristics on which you will be judged in this course include punctuality, attendance, collegial attitude, and participation. Because this course relies extensively on discussion and class interaction, attendance is crucial to your success and that of your classmates. If you are ill or an emergency occurs, contact the instructor prior to the scheduled class time; otherwise, your attendance and participation are firm expectations.

Attendance

Class participation will include class discussions as well as attendance. Attendance will be checked at each session. Immediate notification of your instructor of an EXCUSED absence is required. The opportunity to make up assignments as a result of an UNEXCUSED absence will be at the discretion of your instructor. Roll will be checked at each class meeting. You have 100 points for perfect attendance. Each absence will reduce that grade by the following scale:

0-1	2	3	4	5	6 or more
0%	10%	20%	35%	50%	100%

*** Two tardies equals one absence.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in an automatic F in the course. Students are expected to do their own work. Assistance with written assignments, such as proofreading or editing, is encouraged as long as the final concepts and product are those drafted and authored by the student. Information or materials (including ideas, quotes, data, procedures, etc.) from sources other than the student must be given proper credit through appropriate citation. The discipline of Agricultural Education uses the APA format (7th edition) as its primary style guide for publications.
