Course Information

Course Description

MUS 351 is private instruction for advanced music majors in keyboard, vocal, instrumental, or composition majors. This course includes recitals and performance forums with teacher-directed student evaluations and instructions. All students must pass the upper division barrier examination prior to enrollment.

Student Learning Outcomes

In this course, students will:

- 1) Play a vocalization accompaniment in every major key (minimum tempo of quarter note equals 76).
- 2) Play a four-part chorale at a reasonable tempo.
- 3) Play with good tone and steady pulse three of four parts from a representative piece in the choral repertoire (SAB or STB) given to the student in advance of the mid-term exam.
- 4) Play a piano solo at the equivalent level of Snell book 4 at performance tempo.
- 5) Play the accompaniment to a choral piece or a vocal solo at performance tempo.
- 6) Play with good tone and steady pulse all choral parts of a representative piece in the choral repertoire (SATB) given to the student in advance of the final exam.

Required Textbook

At the first lesson after music is chosen for the semester, a list of expected music purchases will be given to the student. Once the list is given, the student has two weeks to purchase the books. The teacher will provide photocopies of technical exercise, etudes, accompaniments, or any other individual pieces to be covered during the semester.

Course Requirements

Instructional Methods: Required Practice of Piano

Students are expected to practice daily for a minimum of forty-five minutes to one hour. It is almost impossible to “cram” at the last minute and perform well on the jury. The mid-term and final is a performance, not a written test like those given in other classes. Students are not only expected to play the elements on the exam well, but to do so in a performance setting in front of multiple examiners. Daily preparation is the only way to overcome nerves and to give the best performance possible!

Assessments

Assessment type, percentage of final grade, and relationship to student learning outcomes

Attendance and preparation for lessons	30%	SLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6
Mid-term performance	35%	SLO 1, 2, 3
Final performance	35%	SLO 4, 5, 6

Grading Scale

A = 90%-100%	The mid-term and final evaluations serve as the upper division proficiency exam (barrier) for vocal majors.
B = 80%-89%
C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69%	Students must pass the evaluations and the course with a minimum of 70% in order to fulfill the piano requirements for the undergraduate vocal degree.
F = 59% or below

Course Calendar

Week 1-7	Regular instruction
Week 8	Mid-term evaluation
Week 9-15	Regular instruction
Week 16	Final evaluation

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all 30-minute lessons and studio classes scheduled by the instructor. Only one absence is allowed. Each additional absence will lower the final grade by 50 points (half a letter). A student may be dropped from the course after four absences. Lack of preparation is not an adequate excuse for rescheduling a lesson. Lessons will only be rescheduled in the case of a medical excuse or university sponsored trip when advanced notification is given. It is the student’s responsibility to appropriately plan the activities of the week to complete adequate practice and come prepared to lessons.

Tardy and Early Exit

Repeated tardiness and early exit from lessons will lower the final grade by 5 points for each instance. Lessons will be counted as tardy if all necessary materials are not brought by the student.

Missed Mid-term or Final Evaluation

Evaluation performances are scheduled for a specific day/time and will not be made up for any reason other than a verified medical event or university sponsored trip.

Piano Studio Class and Optional Recital

There is no regularly scheduled studio class for this course. The "Just for Fun" Piano Studio Recital will be scheduled later in the semester at 6pm in the Recital Hall. Students are encouraged but not required to perform in the recital. Performances can include solos, duets, trios, quartets, accompaniments, etc.
