Course Description

Students will develop knowledge of various cognitive-behavioral models of common psychological disorders. Students will learn to develop a comprehensive cognitive-behavioral case conceptualization, which will inform treatment monitoring and planning. Additionally, students will review evidence and efficacy data available for implementation of various cognitive-behavioral psychotherapies for specific disorders. Students will have the opportunity to implement specific individual and group cognitive-behavioral interventions within the context of the course. Throughout, this course will emphasize the integration of clinical expertise, knowledge of patient preferences, and evidence-based strategies to facilitate development of evidence-based practice approach to psychotherapy.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

- 1. Students will describe common cognitive-behavioral models for depression and anxiety disorders.
- 2. Students will identify and define the critical elements of a cognitive-behavioral case formulation.
- 3. Using provided clinical cases, students will write a cognitive-behavioral case formulation using the elements of a case formulation.
- 4. Students will describe the basic strategies employed in practice for clinical monitoring.
- 5. After reviewing the criteria for evidence-based interventions and clinical expertise, students will summarize a treatment protocol for an evidence-based intervention. This will include emphasis on cognitive formulation, specific interventions, and resources to implement the intervention.
- 6. Students will demonstrate provision of psychoeducation to intervention to their peers in a cognitive behavior group format.
- 7. Students will describe and demonstrate behavioral activation and pleasant event scheduling in a group or individual therapy format.
- 8. Students will demonstrate identification of automatic thoughts, assumptions, rules, and core beliefs in a group or individual therapy format.
- 9. Students will discuss and describe how to assign, assess, and problem-solve therapeutic homework.
- 10. Students will demonstrate how to implement thought monitoring, Socratic questioning, and adaptive thought identification in a group or individual therapy format.
- 11. Students will demonstrate development of an exposure hierarchy and implementation of exposure intervention in a group or individual therapy format.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

To be successful in this course, you will need to know how to access and navigate (a) Desire2Learn, (b) Microsoft Word, and (c) Microsoft Excel. If you use the program PAGES, you will need to convert your file to a Word document or PDF before submitting to Dropbox. I will not serve as technical support. TAMUC has multiple professionals (e. g., Instructional Technology, CITE, library) who will be able to help you troubleshoot and/or teach you how to navigate the necessary technical requirements for this course.

Instructional Methods

This course is delivered fully online. You will be responsible for completing asynchronous online modules. You will also need to attend and participate in some synchronous class meetings (held via teleconferencing platform; e.g., Zoom). There is an applied project in this course and it accounts for much of your grade. Therefore, it is critical that you keep up with the content at a pace that will allow you to apply it during the time sensitive applied project. You will be required to schedule AT LEAST 2 virtual coaching sessions with me to discuss your project. Historically, coaching sessions last approximately 20-30 minutes; although, some lasted 15 minutes and some over an hour; however, you will only sign up for 30 minute meetings and we will only go over time if both of our schedule permit.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

To contact success in this course, it is recommended that you log into the course at the very beginning of the semester and click through the START HERE module to get an idea of the course expectations and typical weekly workload (so you can schedule your time accordingly). After you have reviewed the content expectations and load, sketch out a schedule for yourself so you are getting your work completed in a timely manner. Whatever amount of weekly time you have given yourself to complete the work, add at least another 90 minutes. The point is to be highly prepared to fully engage in the content and submit work in a timely manner.

Secondly, it is HIGHLY recommended that you take every learning opportunity provided to you throughout the course. There will be virtual classes to unpack and further discuss the highly technical and applicable concepts and techniques you are learning about in the course content. To get the most out of the class meetings, you will want to complete the course modules for each seminar prior to class.

Finally, to be successful in this class, I recommend you access your resources fully, frequently, and without timidity. Ask your peers questions in the discussion board. Email or text (Remind) the instructor if you have any questions or concerns. Contact the TAMUC librarians (they have provided multiple ways to contact them). You are ENCOURAGED to reach out to me and schedule times to meet outside of class and in addition to the minimum (2) coaching sessions. This content and applied nature of the content is incredibly intricate and challenging—I am here as a main resource for information—so DO NOT be afraid to reach out to me for multiple coaching sessions or just to connect about concerns and/or questions.

GRADING

The instructor reserves the right to make subjective judgments about the quality of student participation and products. In other words, quantity does not equate to quality nor does effort equate to quality. Moreover, a grade of A will be reserved for only the highest achieving students. If you need to receive an A in this course, I suggest you work hard to submit stellar products. My office hours are listed on the first page of this syllabus if you need to come and speak with me DURING the semester regarding your grades. Please do not wait until the semester is over to discuss grades. In both undergraduate and graduate school, grades are earned according to individual student performance on described activities. Effort is important but the outcome of your effort is the product upon which grades are based. Final grades are assigned as follows using a weighted percentage points earned scale:

- ✓ Grades of A are reserved for students whose products are consistently exemplary and commensurate with the work of an accomplished graduate student. A products provide clarity of thoughts and ideas with no grammatical, structural, or spelling errors.
- ✓ Grades of B are earned by students whose products are good but not outstanding. B products provide detail and explanation; may have a few grammatical, structural, or spelling errors.
- ✓ Grades of C are earned by students whose products are limited but display sufficient understanding; may have major grammatical, structural, or spelling errors.

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80% - 89%

C = 70% - 79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Percentage toward final grade	Assignment/Activity
30%	Case Conceptualizations
25%	Roadblock Papers
20%	Group Projects
20%	Assignments
10%	Professionalism and Good Conduct

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage.

Artificial Intelligence

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors 'guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
