write résumés, and cover letters, and develop lists of resources relevant to their professional goals. Prerequisites: ENG 1302.

Student Learning Outcomes

Through a mixture of reading, writing, and discussion throughout the Fall term, students will:

- Reflect on what types of professional writing are related to your field of study and areas of interest
- Produce writing skills that demonstrate knowledge of audience, context, and purpose relevant to the professional workplace
- Think critically about and practice different forms of workplace writing
- Engage in the writing process and respond effectively and ethically to professional writing situations and audiences
- Design professional documents that demonstrate knowledge of document design principles, including multimodal deliverables

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need regular access to the internet, digital storage (hardware or cloud storage), a valid working TAMUC email address, knowledge of D2L, and a computer with a word processing software.

Instructional Methods

The modality for this Fall 2024 section of ENG 341: Professional Writing is online, and the delivery is asynchronous. Students enrolled in ENG 341: Professional Writing do not meet in person. We will follow institutional protocols if TAMUC reconsiders instructional methods during the term.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Your success in ENG 341: Professional Writing is tied to active participation in digital spaces (D2L), including the completion of all readings, activities, and assignments throughout the course.

GENERAL OVERVIEW OF REQUIRED WORK

As a student enrolled in ENG 341: Professional Writing, expect to post regularly to discussion boards and prepare weekly deliverables related to ethics, genre, audience, etc. as they develop an overview of professional writing.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

In brief, you will work through the following tasks each week. Further details are provided on the ENG 341: Professional Writing Course Schedule document.

- Work weeks begin on Mondays. Part of your weekly readings/assignments is to view information from me (D2L Announcements) on that day.
- You should use the provided book and additional resources to complete activities and assignments for the course.
- You will perform assignments designed to hone your understanding of professional writing. This includes discussion board posts and writing assignments, among other activities.
- Discuss: Respond to your peers' writing and discussion boards as designated in the Course Schedule.

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact the instructor.

Technical Support

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here: <https://community.brightspace.com/support/s/contactsupport>.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I will work to respond to emails quickly during the week since this is an asynchronous online class. Please nudge me with a second email if a considerable amount of time has passed and you have not heard from me.

Writing Center

The TAMUC Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. In fact, we work from the premise that all writers, no matter their ability level, benefit from the feedback of knowledgeable readers. The Writing Center staff is trained to provide writers with just this service. In short, we are here to help you help yourself. The Writing Center offers one-on-one sessions with writers—both face-to-face and online—begin on the hour and last up to 45 minutes. You cannot sign up for back-to-back appointments (for instance, you cannot sign up for sessions at both 1 p.m. and 2 p.m.), but you may sign up for as many appointments as you'd like each day and week. For more information, visit <https://www.tamuc.edu/writing-center>

COURSE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus and course schedule are guides. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus and course schedule during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus and course schedule will be announced in advance.

Attendance Policy

As mentioned earlier, active participation is the key to success in this section of ENG 341: Professional Writing. Therefore, timeliness is required for assignments. Consistently failing to actively participate or submit assignments on time will impede your ability to pass this class.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Late Work

It is imperative to our success as a class that your assignments are turned in on time. The acceptance and assessment of late work in this section of ENG 341: Professional Writing is on a case-by-case basis. Late work will result in a grade reduction at the discretion of the instructor. Consistently turning in late work will impede your ability to pass the class. Extensions for the final exam are unavailable and Incompletes are reserved for extreme circumstances.

Statement on Antiracism

This course discusses things like economic class, educational opportunities, and other aspects of access to literacy that present a racial disparity in America. It is the position of this class to identify such structural deficiencies as wrong. This subject will potentially cause some discomfort, so please be patient as we discuss these topics together. This course does not tolerate willful insensitive language with respect to sex, race, gender, or orientation, but does attempt to understand how things like racism and sexism create barriers for people.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
