Assessments

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

Participation: With this being an online course, you will need to login to D2L and access this course regularly throughout the week and/or modules. Not logging in and keeping up with due dates and weekly readings and assignments will have a detrimental effect on your grade.

Current Events: To be civically engaged, it is important to have an idea of what is going on in the world, country, state, and local areas. You will have a current event assignment for modules 1-4. Further instructions and expectations will be posted in D2L.

Exams: There will be four exams given during the semester in addition to a final exam to be administered during finals week. They comprise a significant portion of your grade, so it would be beneficial to be prepared for your exams. Since there is a multi-day window for exams, makeup exams will not be given. If you have an athletic or academic reason as to why you are not able to take the exam during the window it is open, you must email me IMMEDIATELY so that other arrangements can be made. This means emailing me BEFORE/DURING the exam window, not after the window has closed.

Quizzes: Quizzes will be given weekly and can be over the subject matter or current topics/events. Questions for the quizzes will come from the week's lectures, assigned readings and any breaking news (political, sports, or pop culture related). Quizzes will be given every week during the semester. Quizzes cannot be made up if they are missed.

Research/Topic Paper: A research paper will be assigned/open during the first module of the semester. Your paper will include a rough draft that will be due at the end of module two and a final draft submitted during the last week of regular classes. The dates listed in the course calendar are hard deadlines with no wiggle room due to the academic calendar set by the university. You will have nearly the whole semester to complete this paper. The final paper should be 5-6 pages double spaced in Times New Roman with 12 pt. font (not including the cover page or reference page(s)). APSA formatting will be used unless otherwise discussed with me. Your paper will need to have a minimum of five academic or scholarly cited sources. If you are unsure what an academic source is, please ask. Points will be deducted for not using appropriate sources. Formatting will be a part of the grade so please make sure you are adhering to them so you do not lose points. The final paper is due December 8th by 11:59 pm.

Extra Credit: Extra credit will be given at the instructor's discretion. I will NOT create extra credit for any student at any time because they "need to get" a certain grade or because they have chosen not to do the original assignments assigned. I do not "give" grades rather you EARN your grade. I cannot stress this enough: keep up with your assignments and your grade in the gradebook throughout the whole semester and not just at the end.

Submitting Assignments & Late Assignments: Late work will not be accepted. Each assignment is given with enough time to complete it. You are responsible for attaching the correct assignment to the correct folder in D2L Brightspace. Once you submit your assignment you should always click on the document to guarantee that it has been submitted correctly, or no document is counted as failure to complete the assignment on time. Poor internet connection, dead laptop batteries, etc. are not valid reasons for an assignment not being completed. If for some reason you are having difficulty uploading your assignment please email me a PDF version before the deadline and explain the situation, but please only use this as a last option.
