Course Description

“This course is a survey of the principles and practice of the political system in Texas. In addition to examining the state constitution and the institutions that it empowers, a wider look is taken to consider local governments, the political system, and the actors in the political system.” (Quoted from the University Undergraduate Course Catalog)

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Critical Thinking: Students will be able to differentiate between fact and opinion.
2. Communications: Student communication will be clear, purposeful, and make appropriate use of evidence, data and technology as applicable.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

3. Personal Responsibility: Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.
4. Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
5. Students will be able to:
 - Explain the origin and development of the Texas constitution.
 - Describe state and local political systems and their relationship with the federal government.
 - Describe separation of powers and checks and balances in both theory and practice in Texas.
 - Demonstrate knowledge of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of Texas government.
 - Evaluate the role of public opinion, interest groups, and political parties in Texas
 - Analyze the state and local election process.
 - Identify the rights and responsibilities of citizens
 - Analyze issues, policies and political culture of Texas.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students will need to be familiar with the University learning management system, (myLeo Online or D2L), know how to use a personal computer, navigate the World Wide Web/Internet, and use basic word processing software such as Microsoft Word and Power Point.

Instructional Methods

The following methods of instruction will be utilized for this course.

- Assigned readings from the required textbook.
- Lectures and discussions during assigned meeting times.
- Course work on myLeo Online.
- Periodic outside readings

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

All students are expected to comply with the following requirements.

- All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.
- Students are expected to regularly check the course site for announcements and updates.
- Students are expected to complete all course readings for each section of the course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Unless arranged in advance, students are expected to turn off and put away all electronic devices such as laptops, cell phones, tablets, iPods/iPads, audio and video recording devices, etc. Students are expected to review any supplementary materials that the instructor provides, such as web links, news stories, etc.
- Students are expected to attend class regularly. Excused absences will only be granted for documented official university activities or documented medical issues. Students are required to provide documentation by the next class meeting to receive an excused absence. Such documentation must be submitted electronically
- Students are expected to complete all course assessments.
- Students are expected to exhibit respect toward their fellow classmates and the instructor. This includes treating everyone with courtesy and esteem in all correspondence and interactions for the course. For more information on this subject, please see the Student Guidebook.
- Students are expected to avoid committing academic dishonesty, consistent with Texas A&M University-Commerce rules and policies. Academic dishonesty "includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments or taking exams), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. For this course, academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, collusion and/or falsifying academic work. In particular, any student who passes off work as their own that was actually written by someone or something (artificial intelligence) else will be deemed to have committed plagiarism. This holds true whether material comes from the textbook, another publication, an Internet source, or another student. Any act of academic dishonesty on any assessment will result in a zero for that assignment and the offending students may be referred to the proper campus office for potential disciplinary actions.
- Students are expected to comply with all myLeo Online/D2L technical requirements in terms of training, computer access, & Internet access. For completion of work on myLeo Online/D2L, students must have access to a good quality computing device and reliable Internet access. For timed assessments, students should have a backup plan (friend's house, local computer lab, or a phone) in case their main device experiences issues. Ultimately it is the student's responsibility to access assessments within the available timeframe and lack of such access will not be grounds for a makeup assessment.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

GRADING

Final course grades will be computed using the following weights.

Grade Breakdown	%
Attendance	12%
Weekly Modules	12%
Exams One	14%
Exam Two	14%
Exam Three	14%
Exam Four	14%
Final Exam	14%
Writing assessment	6%
Final Grade	100%

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 89.5%-100%

B = 79.5%-89.4%

C = 69.5%-79.4%

D = 59.5%-69.4%

F = 59.4% or below

Assessments

Attendance

Beginning the second week of the semester, students will receive a weekly attendance grade. Excused absences will only be granted for documented official university activities or documented medical issues. Students are required to provide documentation by the next class meeting to receive an excused absence. Documentation must be submitted electronically. Acceptable reasons will include university activities, verifiable personal or familiar illness, or legal/court related issues.

Weekly modules

Students will complete a weekly module that will include videos, infographics, substantive questions, writing assessments, and current events questions. These will open on Friday each week at 11:59 AM & close 84 hours later on Monday at 11:59 PM.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The lowest three grades will be dropped. These modules cannot be made up. No modules will be given during the weeks of exams.

Exams

Students will take four exams and one final (comprehensive) exam. All exams will include material from the assigned readings, lecture, and supplementary material. All exams will include 50 questions including the possible following formats: multiple-choice, true/false, matching, short answer, and essay. All exams will be completed online and students will be given 70 minutes to complete each one. The times and dates for the exams are listed at the end of the syllabus.

Exam Schedule

Exam 1: (Chapters 1-3) Opens on 9/13 at 11:59 AM & closes on 9/16 at 11:59 PM.
Exam 2: (Chapters 4-6) Opens on 10/4 at 11:59 AM & closes on 10/7 at 11:59 PM.
Exam 3: (Chapters 7-10). Opens on 11/1 at 11:59 AM & closes on 11/4 at 11:59 PM.
Exam 4: (Chapters 11-14). Opens on 12/5 at 11:59 AM & closes on 12/6 at 11:59 PM.
Final Exam: (All Chapters). Opens on 12/11 at 8 AM & closes on 12/13 at 5 PM.

Writing assessment

Students will complete a writing assessment that will evaluate their ability to effectively communicate, awareness of important social issues, and critical thinking skills. Students will be given more information about this assessment in class and an assignment description in D2L. The due date for this assessment is listed at the end of the syllabus

Extra Credit "Syllabus "Quiz"

Students can earn up to three bonus points toward their final course averages by taking a syllabus quiz. This quiz is designed to ensure that students familiarize themselves with the requirements and expectations of the syllabus. The quiz will be available on D2L/myLeo online and it cannot be made up. The dates and times for this quiz are listed at the end of the syllabus.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your Instructor.

Technical Support

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here:

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Students should rely upon e-mail, office hours, and course announcements as the primary means of communication with the instructor. However, if students have a question about a grade, they will need to meet with the instructor in person. Also, please note that the system will only send e-mail to a student's official University Email address, so students will need to check that account regularly.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

- Make-up exams: If a student misses an exam, that student will receive a grade of zero for the exam. Make-up exams may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Any request for a make-up exam must be made in writing and include documentation explaining why the absence was legitimate. Such a request must be received within two calendar days of the missed exam date unless the student is physically unable to submit such a request. Legitimate reasons may include illness severe enough to require professional treatment, death of an immediate family member, participation in University activities, and legal obligations. Students who miss any exam because they forgot about the exam dates/times will not receive a make-up exam. Please note, these reasons do not guarantee that a make-up exam will be given. Make-up exams will be exclusively essay format.
- Incompletes will be granted at the discretion of the instructor and only be granted in the case of serious medical illness or other serious, unavoidable circumstances and only if the student has completed at least 70% of the course work. Incompletes must be finished within two weeks of the end of the semester.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

AI Use in Courses

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

For this course, students are prohibited from using AI to complete any and all assessments. Any use will result in a 0 for said assessment.
