Recital Scheduling Timeline and Requirements

The recital scheduling procedure and recital requirements are described in the Music Student Handbook under the School of Music Internal Resources tab of the Music Homepage (www.tamuc.edu/music).

As a summary of the process:

1. Consult with your applied instructor
2. Select three possible dates for your recital and recital hearing
3. Submit a signed Recital Scheduling Form to the music office along with your deposit
4. Submit your approved program draft
5. Pass your hearing

Students are responsible for following deadlines and policies, as stated in the Percussion Recital Checklist HERE.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Course Requirements

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Use of the learning management system (D2L); Use of any technology required for your selected performance literature

Instructional Methods

Recital is a performance-based class connected with your applied lessons. In addition, you will be required to complete the required recital request forms and submit your completed program in a timely manner.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success

As you practice your music, don't let the administrative or paper-work details of your recital slip up on you. See the information below, in the student handbook, and communicate with your applied instructor to ensure you submit your recital scheduling forms, hearing forms and program information in a timely manner.

Required Textbooks/Music

You must obtain original copies of all music to be performed for the recital, and provide music for your accompanist if applicable.

Additional Materials

All specialized instruments, equipment, technology or other materials required for your selected performance literature.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Attendance and Engagement Policy

Regular and prompt attendance and active engagement in the class is expected. The student's attendance grade is calculated by the number of times present divided by the total number of class meetings. Students who do are present but not engage in the discussion, or attend class without their instruments may not receive attendance at the discretion of the instructor.

Late Assignments or Work

Recital scheduling is on a first-come-first-served basis. Failure to submit your forms on time may mean you will not get your preferred date, or may result in a delay of your recital date. In addition, failure to submit your program information by the required deadline may result in a penalty.

Use of Computers and Cell Phones

Keep your cell phone silenced during your private lessons and during any conversation with applied faculty or office staff regarding scheduling your recital.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook:
