Course Purpose: Welcome to PLS 1307! This course is designed to introduce students to the principles of plant science and the role of plants in society from an agronomic viewpoint.

Course Text: "PLNT 1213 Course Notes" by Beatrix Haggard. ISBN-13: 978-1-64565-063-8. Available for approximately $45 at the campus bookstore.

Topics covered

- Explain the role of plants in society
- Classify crops by their biology and use
- Recognize agronomically important plant parts and functions
- Explain processes associated with plant growth and development
- Identify important agronomic crops and weeds
- Describe agronomically important soil characteristics
- Explain crop production practices, including tillage, planting, nutrient management, and pest management
- Describe methods of crop improvement
- Analyze socially important issues in crop agriculture
- Apply course content to the production of major crops in Texas

Grading

Course Grading: Grades will be based on quizzes, homework, assignments, and four exams. A total of 1090 points will be available throughout the semester, with only 1000 points counting toward the student's final grade. This means you have 95 bonus points built into your existing course work!

A= 900-1000

B= 800-899

C= 700-799

D= 600-699

F= <500

Course Work Category	# of opportunities available	Available Points	Maximum Points
Quizzes	20	220	200
Homework	8	175	160
Assignments	4	260	240
Exams	4	440	400
Total	56	1095	1000

Grade Disputes: Students have seven days from the date of any grade assessment to dispute their grade. Email Dr. Ogden with PLS 1307 Grade Dispute in the subject line. It is the student's responsibility to check their grades on D2L regularly. If you think there is an error, you must alert Dr. Ogden within a week.

Course Work

Quizzes: Approximately 20 quizzes pertaining to lecture content will be given throughout the semester. 220 points worth of quizzes will be available throughout the semester, only 200 points count toward final grade. Quizzes may be given via D2L or in-class.

Homework: Will be assigned directly from the course text for chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 9, 10, 13, & 15. Homework may be submitted on paper or on D2L- if only one format is acceptable, I will specify within the instructions.

Assignments: Four assignments will be given throughout the semester. These assignments are intended to mimic what you might encounter in a job and will range in format. Guidelines will be general. I will tell you when the assignment is due, where to turn it in, and the parameters I expect. In most cases you will be able to use your own creative directive to determine how you will accomplish the assignment. Assignments will be focused on developing your career competency.

Exams: Four (4) exams will be administered. Each exam will be worth 100 points, with the potential for up to 10 bonus points. Exams will be given class time, specified at least 10 days in advance. You may bring a writing utensil and a calculator.

Late work policy: All assignments (except your final exam) must be submitted on or before December 1 at 11:59 pm for grading consideration.

Expectations

1. Come to class prepared.
2. Arrive on time to class and stay for the duration of class.
3. Ask for help when you need it!
4. Be kind. Respect others. Engage in civil and relevant discussion.
5. Academic Honesty. See Texas A&M University-Commerce Academic Honesty policy at the end of the syllabus.

Classroom conduct: Students who engage in behavior that disrupts the learning environment may be asked to leave class.

Correspondence: E-mail is the best (only) way to contact me, besides coming to my office. Office visits are encouraged! ☺

Please put "PLS 1307" in the subject line of all emails pertaining to class. Include your full name in your email.

Use of AI in Coursework

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
