COURSE INFORMATION

Textbooks Required

Celce-Murcia, M., Brinton, D., Goodwin, J., & Griner, B. (2010). Teaching pronunciation: A course book and reference guide (2nd Edition). Cambridge University Press.

Pickering, L. (2018). Discourse intonation: A discourse-pragmatic approach to intonation in English for ESL/EFL teachers. University of Michigan Press.

Additional readings will be uploaded to the electronic course shell.

Course Description

This course focuses on the application of phonological and phonetic principles and practice to TESOL teaching. Students will become familiar with the principal areas of applied phonology including phonetics, phonology and discourse prosodies. We will examine different approaches to pronunciation teaching in the adult ESL/EFL classroom and investigate a variety of techniques and activities. With a focus on both analysis and teaching, the course is designed to bridge the gap between researcher and practitioner. With your help, I hope to encourage individual student needs and interests in recognition of your future as teachers in the TESOL profession.

(Pre-Reqs: ENG 501, 555 & 599)

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Applies the principles of ESL/EFL language teaching methodology and learning.
2. Demonstrates knowledge of linguistic systems of English phonology, phonetics and discourse.
3. Analyzes and critiques theory and practice of L2 teaching and learning.
4. Communicates effectively in written language in English.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the syllabus and all course instructions posted in the online course platform.
2. Students are responsible for reading all online class materials.
3. Students are responsible for completing and submitting all assignments online.
4. Students are responsible for contacting the professor via Email regarding questions/issues on assignments PRIOR to the due date.
5. Students are expected to exhibit courtesy towards others in this online class. Courtesy means engaging in such behaviors as listening carefully to others, accepting that various points of view can be valid, maintaining a focus on the discussion at hand and treating others as you wish to be treated. A guide to Netiquette can be found at <http://www.albion.com/netiquette>.

GRADING

Final grades in this course are based on the following scale:

- A = 90-100 points
- B = 80-89 points
- C = 70-79 points
- D = 60-69 points
- F = 59 points or below

Assessments

Participation and Reading Posts	25 points (2 points x 12 weeks; I pt. extra crd)
Activities	40 points (4 points x 10 weeks)
Midterm	10 points
Final	10 points
Lesson Plans	15 points

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
