COURSE INFORMATION

Required Materials

Fundamentals of Taxation for Individuals: A Practical Approach (2022), Wiley Education, Gregory Carnes and Suzanne Youngberg. Your Wiley course materials are populated inside MyLeo D2L and will be available to you when D2L opens for the semester.

Here is a link where you can also register and access the text/course materials in Wiley.
<http://video.mhhe.com/watch/W34KDbxJLWmvJa47BpvFKV?>

Textbook Options

Fundamentals of Taxation for Individuals 2022 - In addition to the hard copy text, there is a loose-leaf purchase option from Wiley. Exams are on Wiley/D2L, and open book, so the “flip-factor” you have with the print book might be helpful. Both the hard copy text and the Loose-leaf are available at the TAMUC Bookstore and from other book sellers.

Syllabus and schedule are subject to change.

Course Description

This course provides a survey of federal income tax laws and regulations. The course emphasizes the impact of federal income tax on the individual taxpayer. Class lectures will focus on concepts, definitions, and uses/application of taxation/accounting terms and practices as they relate to US income tax, practices, legal issues and planning. Research and software tools may be used to solve practical tax problems and the completion of Income Tax Form 1040 with appropriate schedules.

Student Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, a student should understand the following general topics and tax return preparation tasks:

1. Identify the obligations and liabilities of taxpayers and tax return preparers.
2. Calculate the elements of the income tax formula as applied to common personal and business transactions.
3. Identify and understand tax reduction or deferral planning opportunities available to taxpayers.
4. Compliance with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) reporting requirements.
5. Research, document, and communicate tax issues and resolution proposals with clients

Classroom and Online Policies

1. It is expected that all members of the class will communicate with civility, act with respect for others, and demonstrate professionalism. Please avoid communication that might be categorized as profane or offensive.
2. Fair and ethical behavior: Please refrain from requesting special exceptions or that rules be "bent" for your situation. All students will be treated and graded with equality and fairness. The course grade will reflect only the points earned during the semester.
3. myLeo Online (D2L Brightspace) and email: This course, online or in a traditional face-to-face setting, has a myLeo Online presence. I will post announcements, assignments and resources to D2L and students are expected to check that area regularly. All grades will be posted to and updated in D2L. D2L is where you should check and review your grades for this class.

Student Responsibilities

Learning is every student's responsibility. My role as a teacher is to facilitate your learning process. Each student is required to:

1. Read assigned material on schedule
2. Listen to the chapter lecture(s), which will be posted to D2L Content area
3. Complete homework on time
4. Prepare diligently for class, homework and examinations
5. Take examinations as scheduled
6. Respect the learning environment by being prepared
7. Observe classroom etiquette (i.e., be on time, talk when appropriate and not visiting or chatting with your neighbor, not be disruptive to others, be respectful)

Assessments

Exam 1 (50 MCQs @ 2 points each – 180 mins)	100

Perform relevant tax research using authoritative US taxation literature and relevant tax codifications and propose possible resolution(s) of the tax issues for the client.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs, etc.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Regularly logging into the course website, amount of weekly study and participation time expected, etc. Be sure to “read” all chapters assigned and study them before attempting quizzes or exams. Outline the chapter or work some of the problems found at the end of each chapter.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

LMS Requirements:

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

See above.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus/due dates will be announced on "D2L Announcements."

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: Netiquette

<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

TAMUC Attendance

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and Procedure 13.99.99.R0.01.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/13students/academic/13.99.99.R0.01.pdf>

Dropping or Withdrawal

“Students who wish to drop a course or withdraw from the university are responsible for initiating this action.” Students are responsible for course dropping and withdrawals. Faculty have the option of initiating a course drop for a student who has excessive absences, but no student should assume that the instructor is going to facilitate a drop. For date information use this link

<http://www.tamuc.edu/admissions/registrar/academicCalendars/default.aspx>

Incomplete in Course

Students who, because of circumstances beyond their control, are unable to attend classes during or after review week, will, upon approval of the instructor, receive a mark of incomplete (I) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades. A grade of incomplete (I) will not be counted in the calculation of the grade point average for one semester. If the incomplete has not been removed at the end of one semester, it will automatically be changed to a grade of F. If a student feels that a grade is not correct, the matter should be discussed with the instructor. If the instructor finds the grade incorrect, the instructor must petition for a grade change by receiving approval from the department head and dean, with final approval from the Registrar’s Office.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

AI use policy

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided, the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
