Course Information

Course Description

Approved subtitles will include Levels I and II in each of the following areas: low brass, high brass, woodwinds, double reeds, percussion, piano, voice, elementary (i.e. Orff, Kodaly, etc.). The course may be repeated for credit when subtitles vary. Through readings, class discussions, and teaching observations, students will be provided with creative teaching strategies to instruct piano students from the beginning stages of piano study through the intermediate level.

Student Learning Outcomes

In this course, students will:

- 1) Develop a teaching philosophy that outlines objectives and procedures applicable to private piano instruction.
- 2) Broaden knowledge of teaching techniques suitable for use in the private piano lesson for students of all ages.
- 3) Assess the different methods available for teaching beginning through intermediate level piano students.
- 4) Become familiar with the standard teaching repertoire for beginning through intermediate level piano students.
- 5) Develop teaching strategies for the instruction of sight-reading, harmonization, transposition, memorization, and other necessary skills.
- 6) Identify quality teaching by master teachers through observation.

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Changes will be announced during class in advance.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and events as required by the instructor. Only one absence is allowed. Additional absences will result in the deduction of 50 points from the final grade.

Failure to attend mandatory events/activities will result in the deduction of one letter grade from the final grade. These events/activities include but are not limited to the teaching of private lessons, observation of private lessons taught by others, Piano Academy recital, Fall Festival, etc. All mandatory events will be announced in class in advance.

The instructor reserves the right to drop a student from the course after four absences. Medical excuses and university-sponsored trips are acceptable reasons for missing class as long as documentation is provided.

Tardy and Early Exit

Tardiness after two will result in the lowering of the final grade by 5 points for each offense. Students leaving the classroom before class is dismissed will receive an absence for that day.

Late Work

All assignments are due by the specified deadline including presentations and teaching demonstrations. Failure to do so will result in the loss of one letter grade for each day the assignment is late.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures: Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, contact the Office of Student Disability Services at 903-886-5150, 903-886—5835; email studentdisabilityservices@tamuc.edu; online at Office of Student Disability Resources and Services; or in-person in Room 162 of the Velma K. Waters Library.

Tenets of Common Behavior

All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See current Student Guidebook).

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Campus Concealed Carry - Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedure/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf> and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.
