Course Description and Objectives

This course introduces students to the fundamental principles and theories of financial asset pricing and valuation. It provides students with a rigorous analysis of modern portfolio theory, the efficient investment frontier, the capital asset pricing model, the security market line, the capital market line, and the valuation of common stocks, bonds, etc. It includes an introduction to the main financial markets, and the development of financial derivatives. It aims to be an introductory course in the topic of investments, and it leads to higher-level courses such as Fixed Income, Derivatives and Risk Management, and Advanced Financial Modeling.

The student, upon completion of this course, should be able to:

1. Understand securities markets, debt securities, equity securities.
2. Form portfolios based on investor risk preferences and constraints.

Course Materials

Textbook (recommended): Bodie, Kane, and Marcus, Essentials of Investments, 12th Edition
Financial calculator: Texas Instruments BAII Plus/ BAII Plus Professional Laptop/Desktop: Microsoft (MS) Excel.

Note: I will teach you how to solve problems using both the financial calculator and MS Excel. You will have the choice to use either financial calculator or MS Excel. However, please note that MS Excel is a Microsoft product and works best with Microsoft Windows and I will be using MS Excel in Windows. If you are using a Mac iOS, there might be compatibility issues and it is your responsibility to troubleshoot Microsoft Excel in Mac iOS; otherwise, you should just use the Texas Instruments BAII Plus financial calculator.

Note: Instructor reserves the right to modify the above grading system with prior announcement in class or thru D2L/ email

Course Requirements

This course will use the MyLeo (D2L Brightspace) course management system. Please check the D2L regularly for course information, class lecture materials, homework quizzes, assignment, exam dates and announcements. D2L quizzes and assignments typically will have due dates and will not be available for submission after the due date. Because technical problems may arise, please do not wait until the last minute to complete assignments and quizzes. Use only Chrome to access this course on MyLeo (D2L Brightspace). D2L is a Windows-based product. Safari, Firefox, Edge, Internet Explorer (IE) are not supported browsers. Often your assignments are not fully visible/accessible from browsers other than Chrome. If you are using a Mac iOS, you must download the Chrome app. However, the app does not fully guarantee your full accessibility.

Examinations

Exams will be primarily of an objective nature, e.g., problem solving, true-false, and multiple-choice. You must not discuss exam contents with any other person. You are on your honor to help preserve the integrity of the exam. Make-up exams will ONLY be considered under extenuating circumstances. Work, personal travel, etc. are NOT extenuating circumstances. Extenuating circumstances would include school sponsored excused event (communicated by faculty advisor/coach), hospitalization, medical emergency, physical injury, or death of an immediate family member. You will be required to provide proof of the extenuating circumstance to be approved for a make-up exam. Make-up exams for students attending school-sponsored events, are scheduled before event departure. Other approved makeups are scheduled within three days of approval of documented extenuating circumstances.

Project Assignment

There will be one project assignment given during the term. Details on the project will be discussed in class. You are encouraged (NOT mandatory) to work in groups with a maximum of four members in each group. You are free to form your own group for the project assignment. There will be NO extension on the Project deadline.

Homework Quizzes

There will be several homework quizzes given during the term through D2L. Each homework quiz will typically cover a chapter and may include both conceptual and problem questions. You are allowed to use your textbook and class lecture materials during the homework quizzes; however, you must complete those on your own without anyone's help. Each homework quiz will have its deadline and there will be NO extension on the deadline.
