Course Description

MUS 100B.012 (Symphonic Band) is a one-hour credit course for large ensemble that performs significant repertoire for wind and percussion instruments. Though primarily comprised of music majors, it is open to all qualified undergraduate and graduate students, regardless of major, through an audition process. The ensemble offers students a performance experience with a broad range of wind band literature.

Course Content and Student Learning Objectives

Course content includes:

- Understanding and demonstration of accurate individual, sectional and ensemble intonation and rhythm along with fundamental and advanced instrumental techniques while performing a varied repertoire of music within the ensemble
- Expressive performance of a varied repertoire of music representing styles and diverse cultures within the ensemble
- Understanding and utilization of standard musical terminology to describe intervals, music notation, chord structure, rhythm/meter, harmonic texture, form, and music symbols and terms referring to dynamics, tempo, and articulation with ensemble.

- Understanding and utilization of problem-solving skills to identify and correct problems with pitch, rhythm/meter, articulation, phrasing, and dynamics within an ensemble rehearsal setting.
- Guest composer interaction & Q&A Sessions (during some semesters)
- Guest artists/educator interaction & Q&A Sessions (during some semesters)

GRADES:

Your final grade will be determined by:

(60%) Music Preparation: Obvious detailed preparation of music (prior to rehearsal and sectionals)

(20%) Performances and Assessments: Participation in and promptness to performances and/or assessments (concerts, recording sessions, etc.). NOTE: sound checks are considered part of the performance.

(20%) Professionalism: Degree of professionalism exhibited in rehearsals, performances and virtual class meetings or guest lectures and timely and clear communication of illness, conflicts, concerns, etc. as would be expected of a professional educator or musician. Attendance and Promptness to sectionals and rehearsals is expected.

Required Sectionals will be held on a weekly basis (The principal player in each section is responsible for coordinating the sectional and informing the director of any absences from sectionals via the weekly sectional attendance form).

Attendance Policy: Since each member is critical to the success of the ensemble, all students are required to be present at each rehearsal and sectionals and to participate fully in each class regardless of modality unless the absence falls under the excused absence policy.

Direct communication with the instructor of any absences is of the utmost importance. Excused absences are defined as illness, family emergency, or a university related event or activity (with prior approval). As with professional ensembles, students are expected to secure a qualified substitute for the rehearsal in advance. A full description of the substitute process will be discussed in the first rehearsal. Potential absences, other than those listed above, should be discussed directly with the conductor at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible. Final classification of absences will be at the sole discretion of the conductor.

- One unexcused absence = a maximum grade of B
 - Two unexcused absences = a maximum grade of C
 - Three unexcused absences = a maximum grade of D
 - Four unexcused absences = a maximum grade of F
- An unexcused absence from a performance may result in an automatic grade of F and dismissal from the ensemble.
 - Tardies accumulate at the rate of Three unexcused tardies=One Unexcused absence
 - If at any time a student fails to meet the standards of attendance, rehearsal or performance for the ensemble, the student may be removed and replaced at the discretion of the conductor.

Use of Electronic Devices: To maintain a focused learning environment, it is required that cellular phones be turned off or made inaudible during class. This includes checking emails on any other device.

Music Stands: All Woodwind and Brass students must provide their own portable music stands for use in sectionals and practice rooms. University music stands will be used only for large ensemble rehearsals and performances. Students needing to order a portable music stand may obtain information from the band office on recommended stand models. Details will be discussed, and recommendations made at the first class meeting.

Music and Concert Folders: You will be given a concert folder for use during the semester. In addition, you will be given music and expected to return music at various times throughout the semester. Please listen and look for announcements regarding this process. If the pieces are originals, you are responsible for the maintenance of each piece that you are issued. Replacement costs for lost or damaged original music will be $3 per page, and a lost or damaged black concert music folio will result in a $20 replacement fee.

Concert Attire:

Gentlemen: Black Tuxedo, BLACK long-sleeved dress shirt, black long tie (to be purchased from the School of Music (est. cost $15.00), Solid black Shoes and Socks.

Ladies: Black pants and top of appropriate style (top, jacket or blouse MUST have sleeves) Shoulders should be covered (no spaghetti straps)-Black shoes are required-sandals are not considered appropriate. Attire should be ALL black)

Please communicate directly with the conductor if you have any questions or concerns about concert attire.

In addition to appropriate traditional concert attire, students are expected to maintain professional personal appearance in the concert setting.

Modality and Virtual Learning Expectations

This course will be provided in a face-to-face format.

The following expectations are provided should virtual synchronous class meetings be utilized for any reason:

- Students should maintain a professional appearance as would be expected in the classroom.
- Students attending synchronous classes should have their video turned on and be attentive throughout the class. Please position your camera in a well-lit professional environment.
- Virtual attendance will be taken for any class that is met virtually.
