Students will examine the basic traits that define the world’s cultures, and hone their oral, written and design ideation skills in order to bridge the cultural divide, connect with audiences, communicate clearly, and generate the desired response.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this class are to give students a better understanding of the customs and behaviors that define various national, ethnic, and philosophical cultures, and to provide skills that will help them overcome cultural barriers when presenting to an audience whose history, traditions, or beliefs they may not share. Student learning outcomes will:

- Initiate learning with attitudes of respect, openness, and curiosity
- Be introduced to new cultures
- Become self-aware of your personal values, strengths, weaknesses, interpersonal style and behavioral tendencies and their impact on others
- Explore and understand ideas, values, norms, situations and behaviors that are different from your own
- Continually seek to understand and learn about activities, behavior and events that occur in other cultures
- Develop presentations, and designed based solutions on topics specifically selected to dispel cultural biases with fact based solutions
- Learn a more effective way of developing relationships with people from other cultures in written and oral presentations, as well as design centric solutions
- Solve intricate problems utilizing the process of design thinking based around cultural intelligence to answer the following questions with that culture in mind; What is the problem? What does the customer need? How do we give it to them?

GRADING GUIDELINES

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

A = 90 - 100: Work well above the general class level, evidence of participation in related activities

Outside of the classroom, thoughtful participation in classroom discussion and critique

Superlative work: careful attention to craft and presentation. Originality of idea and execution work together. Goes beyond merely solving the problem – one who performs at this level is visibly outstanding, work is outstanding in every respect.

B = 80 - 89: Work above the general class level, participation in classroom discussion and critique

Fine work. A few minor changes could have been considered and executed to bring piece together. Goes beyond merely solving the problem. Above average: solution to the problem and idea well planned. Execution is well done.

C = 70 - 79: Average work, minimal requirements met

Average or a bit above: slipping in levels of originality, craft and presentation. The piece does not work well as a unified whole or statement yet effort was made. You have solved the problem but in a relatively routine way.

D = 60 - 69: Work below class average, lack of participation and/or poor attendance

You have solved the problem but there is much room for improving your skills and developing your concepts further. You have neglected the basic craftsmanship skills and breadth and depth of idea development. You were unable to meet mini deadlines. Represents careless and/or incomplete effort. Work is substandard.

F = 0 - 59: Inferior or unacceptable work and effort, work not turned in, or failure to attend class.

1. Assignments.....40% 2. Final.....60%

GRADE EVALUATION

Your final grade will be based on an average of all assignments, attendance and in-class participation. The participation grade is based on the application of course concepts, class involvement, and both a desire and capacity to show progress and meet deadlines. Note!!! Failure to deliver the final exam project will result in an automatic semester grade of F. Grades will be discussed on an individual basis by office appointment only — not in class.
