COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines the relationships between the visual arts and other expressions of human imagination and invention. Special attention is given to parallel developments in the histories of ideas, technology, and art.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, students will:

1. Gain an understanding of art terminology, the elements of art, and the principles of design.
2. Gain an understanding of the processes and materials used in the production of various works of art.
3. Gain an understanding of the visual arts as an expression of human insight, imagination, and technological achievement.
4. Learn how to critically interpret and evaluate works of art.
5. Learn the ways in which art reflects or communicates social, political, ideological, and religious values and constructions.
6. Explain and differentiate creative works as expressions of values within cultural and historical contexts.
7. Learn to recognize the interconnections between art and other expressions of human activity, such as literature, science, economics, music, and theatre.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using D2L Brightspace learning management system, Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint.

Course Instruction Methods and Student Expectations:

This course will require reading material in the D2L classroom, weekly reading assignments from the course textbook, and viewing online videos. Assignments will include writing assignments, creative projects, and quizzes.

Quizzes

Digital Journals

COURSE POLICIES

Attendance:

This is a web-based class, and I will not meet with you in person to take attendance. According to the course schedule, all class materials and related assignments will be posted on D2L. Students will work independently to complete each Unit's readings, videos, and assignments before the listed due date in D2L. Completing assignments in a timely manner is necessary to successfully complete this course.

Academic dishonesty: Instructors are required to use Turnitin.com for written assessment to help with plagiarism.

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one's own, etc.). Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, dismissal from class, expulsion from the University, and a failing grade.
