The Americans: United States History Since 1877. Orlando, FL: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Publishing Company, 2016.

Course Description

HIST-1302 is a general survey course in United States History from 1877 to the present. Throughout the course, the areas of concentration will be the economic, social, political, and cultural growth of the United States. Emphasis will also be placed on connecting past events with current issues and the need for accurate geographic knowledge, which will include the importance of the role of geography in shaping historical events.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose and message. [Research Paper]
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students need to be able to use Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs.

Instructional Methods

The student will be exposed to various forms of learning in the form of teacher-led, student-led, peer-to-peer, and supplementary readings.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

To ensure success in this class students need to regularly log into the course website, stay disciplined with the daily readings and research paper checkpoints, as well as participate in the class discussions.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Quizzes	20%
Exams	30%
Research Paper	20%
Final Exam	30%
TOTAL	100%

Assessments

Students will take three exams throughout the semester with the first two assessments worth 20% each and the final exam worth 20%.

Reading Assignments: Students will be expected to complete reading assignments prior to each class session. Students need to be prepared to read each night as this class is a fast-paced course.

Quizzes: There will be one quiz per unit covered during this semester and it will be taken in class.

Exams and Final: Will be in a multiple-choice format.

Biographical Essay: One biographical essay will be assigned for this course. Students will choose one historical figure from 1877 to the present and write a three to five-page paper that argues why that person is important to our study of American history. The essay must focus on the impact of the individual and contain valid arguments backed up by research cited according to the Works Cited handout. Submission dates and guidelines for the topics, bibliography, and final draft will appear on supplementary handouts. All elements of the biographical essay must be submitted on time. Late submissions due to unforeseen emergencies will be at the discretion of the instructor. The due date for the final copy with the bibliography included is 11/14 by 11:59 pm.

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
