Course Description

This course is a survey of American history from Pre-Columbian contact to Post-Civil War Reconstruction. The course will focus on the major characteristics of the following historical eras: Pre-Columbian American Indian and African societal development; European societal and economic development and colonization; American independence; development of the Constitution; Jeffersonian Democracy; expansion of territory; Jacksonian Democracy; slavery; and Civil War and Reconstruction.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Instructional Methods

Participation: As this is a university level course, discussion is also an expected part of the class. You are encouraged to ask questions and answer those questions asked to the class.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Complete all reading assignments before attending class and be prepared to discuss materials in class. Written assignments must be submitted on the assigned due date. Students will receive ample warning about assignment due dates— computer/printer/technology malfunctions or meltdowns or any other last-minute difficulties are not acceptable excuses. All assignments and activities may be discussed with the instructor by email or in-person before or after class.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your Instructor.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the Instructor's course policies or the conduct of the Instructor or classmate should first consult with the Instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concern to the head of the History Department Sharon.Kowalsky@tamuc.edu If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, the student may bring the issue to the attention of the Dean of Students per the procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Handbook.

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
