Course Information

No Text required. All required materials will be provided by the Professor through emails, Zoom and D2L.

Course Basics:

This course examines reasons that lead to trade among nations, the benefits and challenges of international trade, and the effects of policies to promote or restrict trade. Additionally, this course considers the financial aspects of international economics, including the analysis of the balance of international payments, the determination of exchange rates, and the various exchange rate systems.

Course Objectives: The successful completion of this course will enable students to:

1. Understand the various theories of international trade.
2. Understand the benefits, challenges, and threats of international trade and globalization.
3. Understand the various policy choices regarding international trade of industrialized and developing nations, well as the effects of regional trade agreements.
4. Understand the accounting of international transactions in the Balance of Payments.
5. Understand the nature of the foreign exchange markets, the determination and impact of currency exchange rates, and the forms of policy intervention to influence exchange rates.
6. Understand the interconnectedness of financial markets in our global economy.

Instructional Methods: The professor will provide Lecture notes (and some videos) through D2L Brightspace Content and/or emails. Questions can be asked through email (kishor.guru-gharana@tamuc.edu) 24/7 throughout the semester.

Student Responsibilities/Tips for Success in the Course

1. Students are expected to:
 - a. Read resources provided by the Professor for the week(s).
 - b. Read Professor's Instructions/notes and watch/learn from videos (if any) provided by the Professor in D2L.
 - c. Work the assigned homework problems independently. Submit the homework problems through D2L.
 - d. Read the regular announcements in the Announcement section of the D2L Brightspace and download the posted materials with download links.
2. This syllabus is tentative for the semester. It is meant to be a guide. Certain topics may be stressed more or less than indicated in the textbook depending on class progress, and certain topics may be omitted.
3. Homework problems are assigned and graded every two to three weeks. Two chapters are covered in each assignment. Solutions to Assignment problems will be provided after the grading.
4. Feel free to ask questions through email. I am accessible 24/7 through these channels even during weekends or holidays. You can ask any question related to the course topics and I try to answer them usually within 24 hours.
5. Demeanor: "All students enrolled at the university shall follow tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment". See Students Guidebook.
6. Attendance Policy: This is fully Web based class.

EXAMS SCHEDULE

Exams	Window Period starts*	Window Period ends	Topics Covered
Final Exam (Five hours maximum time limit)	Morning of Saturday, December 7th, 2024	Midnight of Tuesday, December 10th, 2024	Comprehensive

*Uploading will be done in the morning (8 a.m.) of the starting date. The Final has a four-days' window period with time limit once you start the tests. It has a Five-hours' time limit. The Exam is a single-take Exam. That is, you must finish the Exam in a single take (one-stretch).

Mid-night (11:59 p.m.) of the Last Date. Start well before 7 P.M. of the last date for the Final. You can take the test any day/time from Saturday, December 7th. Once the time passes 11:59 p.m. of the last date or you have spent the given time limit for the test (whichever comes first), the system will kick you out of the test. So, be extra careful about the time remaining while taking the test.

The final Exam is accessed through D2L Brightspace following Activities/Quiz/Exam route.
