Course Description

This course is designed to help students examine the developments, events, and circumstances involved in the creation of the United States of America from the Colonial Era through the Reconstruction Era. During the course, all students will be required to identify themes and ideas fundamental to U.S. History and evaluate critically explanations of historical events through brief writing assignments, class discussions, and projects. Critical thinking is essential for any understanding of American history; therefore, students will be asked to critically evaluate not just memorize the course materials. In this class, we will work together to develop the skills necessary for all students to be successful, but your participation and preparation is required.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

- 3. Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
- 4. Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

The minimal technical skills required for this course include using the learning management system, university email, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and ADOBE Express.

Instructional Methods

The course requires a combination of writing assignments and discussion boards. ALL WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE submitted by 11:59 pm each Saturday of the term (No Late Assignment will be accepted for full credit). The instructional week will be from Sunday to Saturday. The late assignment will be assessed a five-point penalty for each day that it is late. Students are expected to read the required readings to participate fully in the discussion board discussions. Discussion Board responses are due on Wednesday at 11:59 pm.

Participation

The students are required to participate in class discussion and respond in a timely manner. In this online course, discussion responses are the primary way for students to share the ideas, concepts, and conclusions they have reached in the study of United States history. Additionally, all correspondence and discussion responses must be respectful and civil.

Discussion Board

During the course, there will be one weekly discussion board question based on assigned readings from The American Yawp. The discussion board will open on Sunday at 12:00 am and close Saturday at 11:59 pm each week. All students must post a complete answer to the discussion prompt that includes specific material from The American Yawp's primary source section. To receive full credit for the assignment, each student must respond to the discussion question with a 150-word post that includes specific information from the assigned primary sources. If you do not participate in all parts of each discussion board thread, you will not receive full credit for your response.

Discussion Board Standards

To create and preserve a course atmosphere that nurtures an engaging learning environment, all students share the responsibility of creating and encouraging a positive learning environment. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not disrupt teaching or learning and follow these standards: Discussion board discussion should be civilized and respectful to everyone and relevant to the topic we are discussing. Discussion forums are meant to allow multiple viewpoints and understandings. This environment cannot exist if we do not respect each other and our differences.

Discussion Board Post (Quantity)

- You are required to post one original response for each topic.
- The post should be at least 150 words, no more than 200 words, that directly address the discussion question, not merely describing the historical events or person in the discussion prompt. Each response should indicate awareness of historical context and importance.
- Responses with fewer than 150 words and more than 200 words will receive a 5-point deduction.
- The response should include specific (cited) information from The American Yawp's primary source section.

Discussion Board Post (Quality)

- Your posts must demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of the topic being discussed.
- You must demonstrate connections between lecture materials, textbook content, and discussion.
- You should relate discussion responses to material covered earlier in the course to give your responses clarity and context.
- Your post should go beyond reciting facts, but it should examine the material at a critical level and include information and facts from The American Yawp that support your response.

Skeletal Notes

Students will complete skeletal notes for a grade three times during the semester. The skeletal notes for each assigned module are posted D2L and will be due Saturday at 11:59 pm of the week that they are assigned. Please review the course guide for the exact date.

Primary Source Analysis

Students will complete a primary source analysis of specific primary sources located in The American Yawp primary sources for a grade. These assignments will be due Saturday at 11:59 pm of the week that they are assigned.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

A successful student must read and review the course syllabus, check the course D2L shell daily, respond to discussion board questions in a timely manner, and submit assignments on time.

Assigned Reading: All students will be required to read and to discuss the assigned books. The books used in this course a free and online: The American Yawp and Jacobs, Incidents in the Life of Slave Girl (Project Guttenberg). Students are responsible for all the readings associated with each chapter.

TURNITIN.COM: All typed assignments, exams, papers, and reviews must be uploaded to the appropriate listing of the course's dropbox. Turn-It-In will only read writing submissions with a doc or docx extension. If you submit a PDF, Turn-It-In can't read it; therefore, the paper will not be graded. Each assignment dropbox automatically uploads the work to turnitin.com for plagiarism checking. This is a requirement for the course, and students will receive a zero if they have not completed this process and submitted a paper that Turn-It-In can evaluate.

Writing Assignments

All writing assignments must be typed in 12 pt. New Times Roman font, doubled spaced, stapled and paginated with a 1" margin. Additionally, all assignments must include, on the first page, your name, assignment, my name, course number, and date. Students must submit an electronic copy to dropbox that turnitin.com can analyze. If the student does not, the assignment will not be graded and receive a zero.
