Course Description

This survey course serves as an introduction to the origins of the United States and developments in the history of North America to 1877. Students will use both primary and secondary source texts to critically evaluate historical figures and events related to the development of the United States.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Use of a web browser to access the internet. Use of a word processor such as Microsoft Word to create documents.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of a series of activities and assessments to assist students in achieving the outcomes/objectives for the course and instructional units/modules. Each week students will work on various combinations of readings, assignments, and research.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Total points corresponding to the final letter grades

A = 900-1000 Points

B = 800-899 Points

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

C = 700-799 Points

D = 600-699 Points

F = 0-599 Points

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Example:

Participation	15%, 150 pts.
Student Responsibility Quiz	5%, 50 pts.
Document Analyses (4 total, 50 pts. each)	20%, 200 pts.
Exams (4 total, 150 pts. each)	60%, 600 pts.
TOTAL	100%, 1000 pts.

Assignments

Participation (SLO 1, 2, 3, & 4):

The participation grade will be based on several in class assignments. These assignments will be based on a prompt provided in class which students will discuss in groups. Students will answer the question as a group on a paper with the name of each student in the group and turn it in at the end of class. (15% of grade, 150 pts.)

Additionally, attendance is expected and will be recorded for each class but will not count against any grade. Instead, for each class a student attends, they will receive two bonus points on the next exam (not exceeding the maximum score).

Student Responsibility Quiz (SLO 4):

The Student Responsibility Quiz consists of a series of questions about the instructor, the course syllabus, and academic integrity that must be taken no later than February 25. The quiz is found on the course's D2L/Brightspace under "Activities"- "Quizzes" (5% of grade, 50 pts.)

Document Analyses (SLO 1, 2, 3, & 4):

These are assignments the student must complete on their own time. Students will be given a primary source document from The American Yawp Reader to analyze. Each of these should be no more than two pages, but there is no minimum page or word count as long as the questions are answered. Grading will be based on three criteria. Context (Who, what, when, where, why), Content (What does it say?), Consequences (Why does it matter?). (20% of grade, 200 pts.)

Exams (SLO 1, 2, & 3):

Exams will be administered during class time and will include a series of 15 multiple choice questions worth 3 pts. each (45 total), 15 true/false questions worth 3 pts. each (45 total), and one essay chosen between two prompts (60 pts.). Essays should be no longer than 5 pages. There is no minimum page count, but essays are expected to fully respond to the chosen prompt with an argument supported by several examples from the reading and the lectures. Exams will be based primarily on the reading assignments from The American Yawp but may contain questions based on the lectures as well.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

(60% of grade, 600 pts.)

Late work will be accepted with a 10% penalty. There will be an additional 10% penalty for the grade for every week that it is late. No late work will be accepted after May 1.

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
