COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Participation (55 points per prompt)

This is a very reading and study-intensive course. Each student is expected to participate through D2L, complete all reading and written assignments on time, and actively engage in class by closely connecting class topics and discussions to textbook and other readings.

Discussion Board Instructions: There are no set times for you enter the board, but discussion should occur throughout the module. You must enter the discussion and post for each module. Read each prompt and post at least one substantive response to that prompt. This usually takes around 150 words. Students will complete an initial post to the prompt and one response post to other students posts. Two posts are required 1 initial post and 1 response posts. Ground your initial posts with references from your textbook and Westlaw (Module 1, Lesson 1). The response post may also include the relating of real world experiences to the discussions or building on other's comments with alternative solutions; pointing out problems or adding another dimension to the discussion. "I agree" or "yes/no" will not be considered as quality responses and will not receive credit. Make sure to share your thoughts and experiences. Always address the person by name to whose post you are responding.

Student Learning Outcome: The student will articulate an understanding of basic legal concepts through examination and discussion of relevant court cases. The student will gain an awareness of major legal resources and demonstrate the ability to use those resources. (TAC 241.15 Principal Curriculum Standards

(1) Principal Standard I – (b) Learner-Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by acting with integrity and fairness and in an ethical manner). (19 TAC Chapter 149 Subchapter BB Administrator Standards Standard 3--Executive Leadership. The principal is responsible for modeling a consistent focus on and commitment to improving student learning). (Domain III: Competency 6: The entry level principal knows how to prompt high-quality teaching by using selection, placement, and retention practices to promote teacher excellence and growth.)

Assessment Method: Your contributions to the discussion forums will be graded for Quality, references and timeliness using a Discussion Forum Grading Rubric found in DocSharing.

Assessment Assignment:

(The entry level principal knows how to prompt high-quality teaching by using selection, placement, and retention practices to promote teacher excellence and growth.)

Legal Briefs (55 points for each case brief)

Pillar project Case Brief and PPT (85 points)

Each student will prepare legal case briefs that are carefully articulated and thoroughly researched pertaining to the course material and assigned reading. Upload your briefs in written format to D2L. It should be your work in your words.

Each brief should be a one-page, single-spaced paper (Times New Roman font, 12 point type, one-inch margins) summarizing the case using the following format with at least one paragraph within the conclusion discussing the impact of this case and the decision of the case to administrators. Address each of the questions or statements below. Label each section (for example, Facts, Issues, Ruling) as labeled below.

Citation: List the legal citation for the case. This should be the title of the paper.

Fact(s): Restate the legally relevant facts of the case. Discuss in detail what happened to get this case into the court system. Bullet points may be used.

Issue(s): In one sentence, identify the question to be answered. To pick out the issue, think about who is arguing and what they are arguing about. An issue statement should include the sources of the law (for example, the First Amendment, the Texas Revised Code, IDEA, etc.), the parties involved, and the issue to be decided. For example, “Was the school district guilty of discrimination?” is not significantly detailed to meet the criteria of a good issue statement. “Does the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment prevent public school districts from maintaining separate schools based on race?” contains the necessary components of an issue statement.

Ruling: What did the courts decide? What were the results? What was the final ruling for the case?

Rationale: Why did the court make that particular decision? What precedent or social event brought the court to this particular decision? On what did the court base these answers?

Conclusion: How does this court decision relate to your life as an educator or administrator, and education in general? What does this ruling mean to the educational profession? How will our lives be altered by this decision? How will the students’ lives be altered by this decision?

References: Using APA format, list the references used in this assignment.

Student Learning Outcome: The student will comprehend and utilize basic legal tests applied by the judiciary in their application to factual situations and cases. The student (19 TAC Chapter 149 Subchapter BB Administrator Standards Standard 3—Executive Leadership. The principal is responsible for modeling a consistent focus on and commitment to improving student learning). Domain III: Competency 6: The entry level principal knows how to prompt high-quality teaching by using selection, placement, and retention practices to promote teacher excellence and growth.

CAUTION: Online resources must be exhaustive and thorough. Otherwise, these resources will be unacceptable.

Assessment Method: Your briefs will be graded using a Legal Brief Rubric.

Special Topics (55 points for each special topic assignment)

Each student will prepare an assignment submission for the following topics:

- Dyslexia
- School Safety
- Mental Health and Suicide

If the special topic calls for a legal case brief, the aforementioned legal brief form will be followed. Each brief should be a one-page, single-spaced paper (Times New Roman font, 12 point type, one-inch margins) summarizing the case using the following format with at least one paragraph within the conclusion discussing the impact of this case and the decision of the case to administrators. Address each of the questions or statements below. Label each section (for example, Facts, Issues, Ruling) as labeled below.

Citation: List the legal citation for the case. This should be the title of the paper.

Fact(s): Restate the legally relevant facts of the case. Discuss in detail what happened to get this case into the court system. Bullet points may be used.
