Carnegie Project on the Education Doctorate: www.cpedinitiative.org/the-framework

Semester Hours: Three (3) to twelve (12)

A candidate must present a dissertation acceptable to the student's advisory committee and the Dean for Graduate Studies and Research on a problem in the area of his specialization. To be acceptable the dissertation must give evidence that the candidate has pursued a program of research, the results of which reveal superior academic competence and a significant contribution to knowledge.

EDAD 718 is graded on an (I) satisfactory or (U) unsatisfactory basis. The grade will be posted as (I) until the dissertation is completed and defended. Your grade will be given by your dissertation chair. You must demonstrate substantive progress to receive a satisfactory grade. This course can serve as documentation of that progress or the lack thereof.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

- 1. Dissertation Candidate will complete chapters as assigned with success as indicated by a successful proposal defense by the end of the semester

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

2. Dissertation Candidate will complete IRB application as approved by the chair by the date due.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

As needed to complete dissertation

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

ENROLLMENT IN DISSERTATION (EDAD 718) Continuous enrollment.

After the student is admitted to candidacy for the doctoral degree, the student must continuously enroll in EDAD 718 until the dissertation is complete. University policy states that the student must be enrolled in 718 while receiving advice or assistance from a member of the faculty or while utilizing university facilities. Therefore, the student must be registered in 718 during the semester the dissertation is submitted.

Minimum and maximum 718 credit.

Regardless of the number of semester hours of EDAD 718 in which a student enrolls, no more than 12 hours, as designated on the degree plan, will be counted for credit. A reduced fee may be approved by the Registrar's Office and Graduate School after admission to candidacy and completion of all coursework other than 718. The student is reminded that the University will charge out-of-state tuition for credits earned above 99 hours.

Dissertation Defense. Scheduling Defense.

Your final dissertation draft must be submitted to each member of your committee a minimum of 2 weeks prior to scheduling your final defense date. This normally means each member of your committee must have your complete proposal no later than the 1st of the month PRIOR to the month you wish to conduct your final defense.

Forms.

Schedule for the Presentation of the Final Dissertation Defense, available from the Graduate School, must be filed in the Graduate School by the 20th of the month prior to the month the defense is held. A Final Examination Report will then be forwarded by the Graduate School to the department for recording the results of the defense. The dissertation defense is a public event and open to all interested graduate faculty and students. Voting persons include the major professor and committee members only.

After the Defense.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The candidate will distribute and obtain relevant signatures on Signature Pages and the Graduate School Advisor's Approval form. Additionally, the candidate and the major professor will prepare a list of agreed upon changes or modifications to be made to the defended manuscript prior to its submission to the Graduate School.

Following approval by the COEHS Dean, the candidate will submit the completed Graduate School Approval Form, Signature Pages, and a copy of the completed manuscript to the Graduate School. Candidates are cautioned to be aware of required deadlines for final submission of all dissertation or thesis manuscripts, necessary forms, copyright agreements, UMI materials, fee payments, and applications for graduation etc.

If the dissertation defense is successful, the doctoral advisory committee chair completes the Final Examination Report, which is signed by committee members and the Dean of the College of Education and Human Services. University Guidelines.

It is the student's responsibility to carefully follow the policy stated in the Graduate Catalog regarding the final dissertation, number of copies, deadlines, etc.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

Grade in EDAD 718 Grades. A grade of "in progress" (I) or "unsatisfactory progress" (U) is recorded each semester until the dissertation is successfully complete and the student graduates. The registrar's office will change I grades to an S for the final transcript.
