Course Description

This practice course teaches the application of social work skills with organizations and communities. Students will apply a systematic approach to data gathering, assessments, planning, intervention, and evaluation with organizations and communities. Special attention will be given to issues of diversity and ethics in practice. Skills are developed through class exercises, role plays, and written assignments.

Prerequisites: SWK 322, 328, 329 and 370.

Concurrent enrollment: SWK 325, 348, and 350 is required.

Relationship to Other Courses:

This course serves as a foundation course in the program and provides further skill and knowledge when working with macro practice, organizations, and communities. This course builds upon the generalist social work foundation in SWK 2361, Introduction to Social Work, and the further exploration of policies in the concurrent enrollment in SWK 328, Social Welfare Policy, and the macro perspective addressed in SWK 322, HBSE II.

Student Learning Outcomes

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identify and assess what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Listed below are the competencies and associated knowledge, skills, values and/or cognitive and affective processes that comprise the expected outcomes for this course.

|  | Activity/Assessment | Dimension |  |  |

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class you will utilize the Learning Management Systems (LMS) D2L for instructional and learning opportunities, submitting your assignments, participating in online synchronous and asynchronous discussions, accessing resources, and completing quizzes/tests. Additionally, knowledge and skills in using Microsoft Word PowerPoint and Outlook Email, If you have any issues with using the various systems or software, it is your responsibility to contact support services and to notify the instructor of the problem.

Instructional Methods

This course will be delivered via synchronous and asynchronous sessions via D2L and will consist of live class sessions, pre-recorded lectures, group engagement activities, various assignments with some including experiential learning and practical application of the content areas. In addition, small lectures, discussion activities and workshops may be utilized to provide instruction during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible to engage in active learning and reaching out to the instructor if there are problems or challenges that is interfering in optimal learning. Communication is key when engaged in a fully online, virtual environment.

Expectations for success include:

- Always demonstrate professional behavior, including demonstrating respect for instructor and peers; being open to feedback and guidance throughout this class and in the program.
- Adhered to the School of Social Work and University student code of conduct, along with NASW Code of Ethics.
- Begin reading the assigned text and supplemental readings as soon as possible, with a focus on completing all readings prior to engagement with instructor or peers.
- 4. Prepare to engage in live class sessions, discussions, and other activities so you can be a contributor as well as receiver of knowledge and skills.
- 5. Actively participate in engagement activities which will include live virtual class sessions, online discussions, and interactive learning opportunities -as this if vital for learning and success in both this course and the program.
- 6. Work ahead when possible, completing assignments ahead of due date so you are prepared to submit on the due date.
- 7. Sign into the D2L course multiple times during the week to access updated announcements or posted resources.
- 8. Check your university email daily. This is the official method of communication by the university, department, and instructor.
- 9. Be open and focused on the "process" and not the "product" as earning this degree requires time, effort, work and ultimately growth in knowledge, skills, abilities along with personal and professional attributes.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% of total points

B = 80%-89%

C = 70% - 79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Important: All weekly assignments and examinations are due in D2L by the due date. For the 3 Application Activities, 10 points will be deducted from the assignment grade for every day past the due date.

As social work students, you will have many deadlines in practice that you will be expected to meet. Many times, not meeting deadlines can result in an adverse effect on your clients' lives. It can also result in termination of employment. The School of Social Work feels it is good to help you get into the habit of meeting those expectations now vs. later. Our goal for each of you is to be successful not only in this course but also in the practice setting.

Thank you for understanding and your willingness to take the first step toward your own success.

Evaluation for course grades is according to the following formula:

Chapter Quizzes (10 quizzes @ 10 points each) Note: the lowest quiz grade will be dropped

Application Activities -3 @ 100 points each 300 points

Weekly D2L Activities (100 points total, 5 point penalty for any posted activity or discussion not submitted on time (no make-ups will be allowed) or which does not meet minimum stated expectation. Discussion posts are expected to be a minimum of 100 words

Total Points Possible 500 points

ASSESSMENT

Application Activities (3 @ 20 points each)

Students will complete the three application activities in D2L throughout the course (see Course Outline and Schedule). Each activity is due by Sunday at 11:59 PM of the assigned week. Note: the lowest Application Activity grade will be dropped at the end of the semester. See Appendix for Description of Application Activities

School of Social Work and Council on Social Work Education Specific Policies

Course Engagement

Final Evaluation and Grade Depends on both Classroom attendance and Participation
Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material.

To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate both mastery of content and active engagement.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – which is defined as engagement. Engagement is defined as meaningful involvement in interactions with instructor, peers, outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or F2F, students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities may include, but are not limited to participation in live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a Face-to-Face course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions and collaborating in group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement of the time set during a semester by the instructor.

Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet for successful completion of the course.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the *University*Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct and National Association of Social Workers' (NASW) Code of Ethics.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or to the Department Head. More serious offences by be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of NASW Code of Ethics (located at https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp) on the NASW website: https://www.socialworkers.org

University Code of Conduct located in the Student Guidebook at http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf (pp 34- 66). On the University Website under Campus Life Documents

APPENDIX A "APPLICATION ACTIVITIES"

Application Activity #1 - Engaging with Diverse Populations (100 points)

Attend a cultural event or activity that is different than a group with which you identify. This can be a church service, a social event, community festival... any activity in which there's a predominant cultural/ethnic/focal population present and DIFFERENT than your own.

Write a 3-4 page reflection paper

- I. Summarize the purpose of the event
- II. Perceived perspective of the group participating in the event
- III. Your reaction to the experience.

Respond to the following questions as a part of your reaction:

- a. What experiences have you had with members of this population group?
- b. What self-identities and attitudes did you bring to this experience?
- c. What are the strengths, vulnerabilities, and power imbalances faced by this population group?
- IV. Use the framework related to Cultural Humility highlighted in Table 3.2 as a part of your analysis.
- V. Implications of intersectionality of this group or population what are the dimensions of intersectionality within this population? What are possible issues of power, privilege, discrimination, and oppression identified by members of this population (or through review of professional knowledge base)? What frameworks are useful in understanding population dynamics? (Review Spotlight 3.2 from text)
- VI. Conclude with your overall assessment of this experience and how it influences your view of engaging with diverse populations in macro practice.

Application Activity #2 – Agency Analysis (100 points)

Choose a human service organization in your community, or possibly an agency you're interested in doing your field internship. Follow the outline below, BUT refer to content from Ch. 7 for context. Write a 4-5 page paper addressing the areas from the outline. Use the headings to organize your paper. DO NOT PLAGIARIZE – any information taken from agency sources (websites, brochures, etc.) need to be paraphrased (put in your own words). Include citations from any sources. It may be helpful to interview agency personnel to obtain needed information. I will be checking info from websites, FB, etc., and plagiarized information will have significant point deductions, or a grade of "F"

I. Description of the agency (include it's location and service area)

- Mission
- -Goals
- -Objectives
- -Purpose, services, and programs
- -Philosophy

II. Describe the agency structure:

Application Activity #3 – Community Involvement & Oversight (100 points)

Attend a community meeting (city council, school board, planning/zoning meeting, county commissioner's court, public hearing for a planned change, etc.). Record the purpose of the meeting, the key participants (public leaders, elected figures, etc.), who was in attendance, key points of discussion, and any decisions that were made.

Write a 3-4 page paper which includes the following in narrative, using full sentences and paragraphs:

- Date, time, location, and purpose of meeting
- Key participants (number, roles/purpose, etc.)
- Key points of discussion (summary) & any decisions that were made
- Observations about the overall meeting process
- Referring to Table 4.2 on "Functions of Community", address one or more of these functions that were reflected in the community meeting.
- Refer to the section on Strengths, Empowerment and Resilience Perspectives (in section on Contemporary Perspectives, and refer to Table 4.9). Assess the content of the meeting in terms of one or more of these perspectives.
- Conclude your paper with a one paragraph summary and conclusion.
