SCHOOL OF MUSIC MISSION STATEMENT

The School of Music of East Texas A&M promotes excellence in music through the rigorous study of music history, literature, theory, composition, pedagogy, and the preparation of music performance in applied study and ensembles to meet the highest standards of aesthetic expression.

COURSE DESCRIPTION & OBJECTIVES

- Exhibit accurate individual, sectional and ensemble intonation and rhythm along with fundamental and advanced instrumental techniques while performing a varied repertoire of music within the ensemble;
- Perform expressively a varied repertoire of music representing styles and diverse cultures within the ensemble;
- Utilize standard musical terminology to describe intervals, music notation, chord structure, rhythm/meter, harmonic texture, form, and music symbols and terms referring to dynamics, tempo, and articulation;
- Utilize problem-solving skills to identify and correct problems with pitch, rhythm/meter, articulation, phrasing, and dynamics within a rehearsal setting.

GRADING

You will receive a numerical grade based on your preparation for rehearsals and your performance.

Each component of your rehearsal will be scored in the following manner:

SCORE

- 95-100 - Assignment was thoroughly mastered: no mistakes or other problems evident
- 90-95 - Assignment was nearly mastered: a few minor mistakes encountered
- 85-90 - Assignment fairly successful: a few passages/concepts require more attention
- 80-85 - Assignment needs improvement: several passages/concepts that required more attention - may be reassigned
- 75-80 - Assignment shows minimal success: several concepts simply not mastered - will be reassigned
- 70-75 - Assignment not adequately prepared: several concepts not performable AND apparently no attempts made to “figure it out” - will be reassigned
- 65 - No practice or improvement evident: will be reassigned

Arriving late for a rehearsal or failing to bring all required material will automatically lower your grade for that rehearsal by 10 points.

ATTENDANCE

You are required to attend all rehearsals. Your final course grade will be lowered by 10 points for each unexcused absence.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND PROFESSIONALISM

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (see Student Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct.) Your behavior as a performer or audience member reflects directly on the studio, the School of Music, and the University. You are expected to act in a professional manner while performing or attending any public event associated with the University. Unnecessary talking, rude behavior, or disruptive conduct during performances (this includes between pieces and during set changes) will not be tolerated by the faculty.

East Texas A&M will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

The ability to present yourself as a professional is not magically bestowed upon you at graduation; it is a skill-set that you must develop throughout your academic career. The relationships you establish with faculty and colleagues now can significantly affect your future. The professor reserves the right to dismiss a student from the course and/or request the reduction or revocation of a student's scholarship award as a result of repeated or egregious unprofessional or illegal activities.

COMMUNICATION

Email is now an important means of communication within the studio and the School of Music, so you are expected to check your email regularly and respond promptly when necessary. Missing important announcements, deadlines or events because you fail to check your email regularly is completely unprofessional.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
