Course Information

Required Texts and Materials

Jeff Todd Titon, Worlds of Music: An Introduction to the Music of the World's Peoples, 6th edition, New York: Cengage Learning, 2017.

In this course, we will use the e-book and the book companion website called “Mindtap” on the textbook publisher’s website. This is much cheaper than purchasing the book, and gives you access to the listening links and online study resources. You can purchase access to the ebook from the publisher’s website through the D2L shell in the first week of class.

Course Description

This course provides a survey of World Music which focuses on the music, musical styles, genres, traditions and theories of non-Western cultures.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify the basic elements of music (melody, harmony, rhythm, form, etc.) of music as found in the music of non-Western cultures.
2. Describe and identify, through visual and aural examples, the instruments, genres, and styles of music presented throughout the semester.
3. Connect non-Western music to its purposes in the societies and cultures of the music’s origin.
4. Connect non-Western music to the student’s personal experiences.

General Education Student Learning Outcomes

- Critical thinking: Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts or art.

- Communication: In written, oral and/or visual communication, students will communicate in a manner appropriate to the audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
- Social responsibility: Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues
- Teamwork: Students will be able to work together toward a shared purpose relevant to the course or discipline with a sense of shared responsibility for meeting that purpose.

Course Requirements

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Use of the learning management system (D2L), MindTap, and Microsoft Word.

Instructional Methods

Students will follow outlined activities for each week that include in-person lectures, listening examples, readings, and discussions.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success

To successfully complete this course students should regularly attend class, keep up with weekly activities, and complete assignments on time.

Grading

Your final grade will be based on the following point distribution:

Discussion and Listening Activities	100
My Musical Culture Essay	150
Album Review	150
Exam 1	200
Exam 2	200
Exam 3	200
Total	1000

A=900-1000 B=800-899 C=700-799 D=600-699 F=Below 600

Assessments

Discussion and Listening Activities: 100 points of the final grade will be earned through Discussion and Listening Activities. There will be twelve Discussion and Listening Activities over the course of the semester. For activities focused on discussion, students will break into small groups to discuss a topic relevant to that day's lecture and submit a short written answer for credit. When activities are focused on practicing critical listening skills and listening identification, students will submit written answers that they arrive at individually. Dates of the Discussion and Listening Activities will not be announced ahead of time. The only way to earn points for a Discussion and Listening Activity is to be in the classroom for the entire class period on the day that an activity takes place. Discussion and Listening Activities cannot be made up for any reason.

Each time you are present for an activity, you will earn 10 points toward your final grade (points are awarded based on the thoughtfulness of response you submit). You can thus miss two Discussion and Listening Activities and still earn full points in this category. If you are present for all twelve Discussion and Listening Activities, you may earn up to 120 points in this category (20 points of extra credit). I reserve the right to change Discussion and Listening Activities to graded pop quizzes if it becomes evident that students are not preparing for class or are not participating.

My Musical Culture Essay: Students will write an essay describing their own music culture and the ways they use music in their personal lives.

Album Review: Students will write an essay reviewing an album of non-Western music that they choose and connect it to concepts from the course.

Exams: There will be three exams over the course of the semester that consist of listening identification and multiple choice questions.

Grading: Grades will be posted within one week for Discussion and Listening Activities and Exams, and within two weeks for the My Musical Culture Essay and Album Review.

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Course Specific Procedures / Policies

Attendance Policy

Attending class regularly is the responsibility of each student and is not mandatory. Please keep in mind that I will not post PowerPoint slides. Although you will not be penalized for missing classes, I will keep a record (via sign-in sheet) of which students have attended. I am always happy to answer questions about class material for students who have been in class, but I will not re-teach material to students who have not been in class (limited exceptions may be made for students who provide documentation for truly unavoidable absences). I reserve the right to institute an attendance policy if I think attendance and/or tardiness is becoming a problem.

Classroom Etiquette

As a courtesy to your classmates and me, you should plan to arrive on time for class and to remain in the classroom for the entire class period. It is very distracting when students leave and enter the classroom during a lecture. Students who consistently arrive late, depart early, or leave and reenter the classroom without serious reason may lose Discussion and Listening Activity points.

Although the format of this class is a lecture, I expect students to answer questions and engage in discussion about the assigned materials. I strongly encourage every student to participate actively. You are by no means required to like all of the music assigned in this course or to agree with the views expressed by the composers and critics we will be studying. You are, however, expected to be thoughtful and courteous in expressing your opinions and in responding to those of your classmates.

Electronic Devices

Students may use laptops or tablets to take notes during lectures. The use of cell phones is prohibited. Please silence and put away (completely out of sight) your cell phone. If I notice you using your cell phone, I will ask you to put it away. If I must ask you to do so more than once in a class period, you may lose Discussion and Listening Activity points.

Students may not record lectures or take pictures of PowerPoint slides without my consent.

Late Assignments and Make Up Exams

Assignments submitted within one week of the deadline will incur a 50% penalty. No assignments will be accepted beyond one week after the deadline. Exams will only be given on the dates listed in the Course Schedule. Make-up exams will be given at the discretion of the instructor and only in extreme cases with documentation.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
