COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Expectations and Participation:

Active participation in this web-based course is expected. It is recommended that students log into the course module weekly to stay on track with the assigned reading materials, discussion post, assignment, and project.

Students are expected to take an active learning approach in this course and engage in the content to positively impact the learning experience for everyone.

Complete all discussion posts, assignments, and papers by deadlines.

Incorporate knowledge gained from the text, personal experiences, peers' feedback, and other resources to formulate ideas on your responses.

Course Assessments

This course is made up of a series of module assignments and assessments to assist students in achieving the learning outcomes. In each module, the students will work on combinations of reading, discussions, journal articles, videos, and/or self-study research.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Introduction (5%): Students will create a video to introduce themselves. Students can either create the video using the Panopto application or any other tool of their choice. The Panopto application may refer to the resource that is available in the Doc Sharing folder. Please refer to Module 1 for the information that needs to include in the video.

Pre- and Post-Course Survey (2.5% each): Students will complete a pre-course survey at the beginning of the course to share their thoughts and understanding about research methodologies. At the end of the semester, student will complete a post-course survey to share their feedback and reflections on research methodologies. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of this assignment.

Discussion Board (5% each): For each discussion thread topic, students will be required to post an “initial” post and at least two “replies” to their fellow peers’ posts. When posting the initial post and replies to peers’ posts, think about how the content adds substance or meaning to the discussion topic. For peers’ replies, it is strongly discouraged saying simple “yes, I agree” or “I disagree”. Students need to explain why they agree or disagree and provide examples, experiences, resources, alternative perspectives, challenging views, etc., to make the dialogue richer. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

References Assignment (5%): Students will develop a reference page with 10-12 scholarly peer reviewed sources that will be used for the research plan using APA (7th ed.) guidelines. Refer to the course module for further instructions. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Research Design Critique Reports (10% each): One objective of this course revolves around learning about different types of research designs. In Module 3 and 4, students will complete a research design report to assess their understanding of the different designs. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Research Plan (30%): The core of this course is the development of a research plan. Through the analysis of appropriate research literature, students will identify a problem that they wish to further investigate. The problem needs to be one that is “researchable” and related to an area in their program of study or profession. Throughout the semester, students will conduct a series of activities to assist them in developing and refining their research topic and completing a formal research plan. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.
