COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods

In-person, one-on-one applied music instruction.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Every week you will have an assignment for the next lesson, please prepare that assignment. Weekly studio class attendance is also required, and there may be assignments for studio class as well.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Grades are based on attendance, performance, preparedness, and progress.

Students will be evaluated on a percentage basis from the following areas:

1. Weekly private lessons - Student will receive a grade for each lesson. This includes having all necessary materials/books/music, scales, tone production, technique, etudes, orchestral excerpts, solo repertoire, and any special assignments designated by the instructor. Lesson grades will count for 50% of the student's final semester grade.
2. Studio Class, Recital Attendance and Flute Choir Participation will count for 15% of the student's final semester grade. For those not able to attend weekly studio class due to class conflicts (minors), a separate project will be assigned.
3. Scale Jury: 10% of the final semester grade. Students are required to play a scale jury by memory at the discretion of the instructor. See D2L for more information.
4. Final Jury: 25% of the final semester grade. Please read carefully as these are pre-requisites to your jury performance :
 - a. If the repertoire to be performed has piano accompaniment, the piece(s) MUST be performed with piano accompaniment. The student must secure a pianist NO LATER THAN Nov 1st in the Fall semester and April 1st in the Spring semester. Failure to do so will forfeit the opportunity to perform the Final Jury.
 - b. The student MUST have a lesson with pianist and flute instructor on jury piece(s) before finals week in order to perform the Final Jury. Failure to do so will forfeit the opportunity to perform the Final Jury.
 - c. Students are expected to own the original score to ALL the material they are performing in juries and other performances and bring 2 copies for the jurors to the Final Jury, or upload 1 copy online to the provided Google Drive link. Failure to do so will forfeit the opportunity to perform the Final Jury.
 - d. For MUS 149, MUS 151, MUS 351 and MUS 551 flute and piccolo students, they may have the option to arrange a separate final jury outside of Woodwind juries at the discretion of the instructor.
 - e. Students must fill out the correct paperwork online prior to the jury performance time (Rep Records). Failure to do so will forfeit the opportunity to perform the Final Jury.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Note: The instructor reserves the right to make exceptions and adjustments to the course policies on a case-by-case basis, to accommodate particular circumstances.

Students are expected to demonstrate skills in pedagogy through their observation, analysis, and feedback of the performances of other students in Studio Class. This pedagogy requirement is guided by all flute instructors. Students are expected to gain skills in this area by the observation of teaching techniques in their own private lessons and through the observation of teaching techniques of other students in studio class, guest artists brought to campus, and optional conference attendance or optional observations of master teachers online.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all lessons. Absences from lessons will be made up at the discretion of the instructor. It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor in advance of a legitimate absence, and to secure any assignments from instructor or other students. If you know that you must miss a lesson, please give me advanced notice (24 hours minimum via email or phone call) so that we can reschedule (if possible—make-ups are not guaranteed). Lessons missed due to student vacations taken during the term will not be made up. The only excuses for missing a lesson are illness and family emergencies. If you do not give me notification in advance, you will receive a "0" for the missed lesson. After 2 absences, your final grade may be dropped by one (1) full letter grade.

Required Recitals:

If you are a music major, you are required to attend all flute recitals and masterclasses that are given on campus/online. This is part of your Studio Class portion of the grade (see above). There will be many other required woodwind recitals and masterclasses in the area that will be announced throughout the school year.

*Dates will be announced in weekly Studio Class as they become available.

The applied instructor selects literature and plans lessons in a logical sequence specifically designed to prepare each student to meet the stated student learning outcomes. Thus, the literature and skills addressed in each lesson will vary according to each student's experience in performance repertoire and technical strengths and weaknesses. In practice, after assessing a student's skills and needs in the early lessons, the applied instructor often provides a more detailed overview of the semester's activities; however, this overview is specific to that student and the sequential activities are contingent upon that student's continued progress.
