Course Description:

(ENGL 2331) Literature of the Western World. Three semester hours. A study of selected works of fiction, poetry, and drama in the literature of western civilization from classical times to the present. Prerequisite: ENG 1302.

Core Curriculum Course Objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
- Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

English 2331 Learning Outcomes:Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Identify key ideas, representative authors and works, significant historical or cultural events, and characteristic perspectives or attitudes expressed in the literature of different periods or regions.
- Analyze literary works as expressions of individual or communal values within the social, political, cultural, or religious contexts of different literary periods.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the development of characteristic forms or styles of expression during different historical periods or in different regions.
- Articulate the aesthetic principles that guide the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
- Write research-based critical papers about the assigned readings in clear and grammatically correct prose, using various critical approaches to literature.

Instructional Methods:

This is a face-to-face class. We will meet everyday during your assigned class period at Whitehouse High School, Room 119.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

Assessment in this course is driven by engagement with and understanding of texts from each of the following literary time periods. Within each unit, your grade will be based on a combination of weekly readings, group and independent daily work, projects, exams, and response papers.

Classical (20% of course grade)

Medieval (20% of course grade)

Renaissance (20% of course grade)

Enlightenment (20% of course grade)

Romantic to Modern (20% of course grade)

Weekly Readings, Daily Work, and Quizzes: Over a period of fifteen weeks this class will read and discuss poetry, fiction, drama, and selected shorter readings. Due to the pace of the course, students must come to class prepared to participate in both group and individual activities utilizing assigned readings. There may also be announced or unannounced quizzes that test both completion and comprehension of reading assignments.

Projects & Exams: This course will have a midterm and a final exam. Additionally, there will be an assessment given at the end of each unit. The units that do not require a response paper will be assessed through a project or multiple choice/short answer exam.

Response Papers: Throughout the course, you will be asked to write various response papers that contain a strong and effective thesis as well as a clearly-defined critical approach, consistently supported in a logical fashion throughout the paper.

Grading Scale
90-100	A
80-89	B
70-79	C
60-69	D
Below 60	F

Late work is not accepted.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION:

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE SPECIFIC PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Interaction with Instructor Statement:

My goal is to be as flexible and compassionate as possible. If you have questions or need support, ask during your class period, email me, or come to my class during Flex.. I will do whatever I can to help you meet your learning goals. To answer emails as quickly and accurately as possible, please follow the email etiquette guidelines described above and in “Some Habits for Success in College” in Writing Inquiry (available on Top Hat). I respond to emails within 48-hours, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Email Etiquette

In sum, all emails to your instructor should include the following elements:

1. Subject Line: Your subject line should be clear and specific. Recommended format: Name. Class and Section #. Topic of Email.
2. Salutation: Greet your instructor by their preferred name.
3. Body: Keep your message clear, concise, and respectful (it should not look like a text message). Use a respectful tone throughout. Remember to keep your audience in mind and that every interaction is a reflection of your academic persona.
4. Closing: End your email with an appropriate closing followed by your full name.

For more details about these elements, an example email, and a template, see “Some Habits for Success in College” in Writing Inquiry through your Top Hat platform.

Attendance:

While your attendance does not directly impact your grade, “it is important to attend class on time and come to class prepared (preparation means having completed any reading/homework beforehand and bringing the required materials like a charged device for textbook access and notetaking). Attending class on time ensures that you do not miss any course announcements, reminders, lectures, or activities.

If you miss due school-related absences, you are still responsible for meeting all deadlines.

Submission Guidelines:

You will submit a large majority of your assignments on D2L. You must use a D2L compliant file type such as Word .docx, PDF, PowerPoint .pptx, etc. Apple Users: Pages is not a D2L compliant file type.

Syllabus Change Policy:

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

UNIVERSITY SPECIFIC PROCEDURES

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Conduct:

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
