Absence Policy: Absences will not count against student grades. However, attendance is expected in order to do well in the course. Attendance policies will mirror those expected for Caddo Mills High School students. Assignments missed because of school-related or medical absences can be submitted the next school day. Assignments missed for other reasons will be accepted at the discretion of the instructor.

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and Procedure 13.99.99.R0.01.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/13students/academic/13.99.99.R0.01.pdf>

Reading Assignments: Students will be given weekly reading selections that are to be completed at the end of each week. Students need to be prepared to read each night as this class is a fast-paced course. Students will be given a quiz on the first day of each week over the previous week's readings.

Quizzes: Quizzes will be given each week over important vocabulary from the unit that we are covering. These will be quite extensive so please make sure that you are spending time in study for these each week.

Biographical Essay: One biographical essay will be assigned for this course. Students will choose one historical figure from U.S. History to 1877 and write a three to five-page paper that argues why that person is important to our study of American history. The essay must focus on the impact of the individual and contain valid arguments backed up by research cited according to the Works Cited handout. Submission dates and guidelines for the topics, bibliography, rough draft, and final draft will appear on supplementary handouts. All elements of the biographical essay must be submitted on time, in hard copy form. If a student knows that he/she will not be present to turn in the essay on time, they must submit it before the due date. Late submissions due to unforeseen emergencies will be at the discretion of the instructor.

AI use policy [Draft 2, May 25, 2023]

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
