COURSE DESCRIPTION

Student Affairs Services in Higher Education. Three semester credit hours (3 SCHs). As the foundation course for those planning to enter student affairs work in higher education, this course offers students opportunities to examine the historical and contemporary role and scope of college student personnel services. Provides students with an in-depth understanding of major theories of student development and the application of these theories to student development practice.

GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

This course is a required course for the Student Affairs Practice in Higher Education: Counseling program option. As an elective, it is open to both doctoral and masters' students in any major, with consent of instructor. It is particularly valuable to students planning to enter the fields of college or university administration or teaching. The course is designed to acquaint the student with role and scope of the college or university student personnel worker through lectures, class discussions, committee work, and individual study. Materials will focus on the history and philosophies of higher education, student services programs, pertinent research and research forms, student affairs practice, current issues and future trends in higher education, and student development models and theories.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Late Assignments

Occasionally, students require “extra” time to complete an assignment. One additional week may be “purchased” with 10% of the possible grade for an assignment. For example, Harry is unable to complete and submit his Assessment Instrument Completion and Reaction on time. The maximum grade Harry can receive now on his Assessment Instrument Completion and Reaction is 90%. Extra time cannot be purchased for completing tests.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of

East Texas A&M University

Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
