COURSE INFORMATION

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings

- An Introduction to Brain and Behavior (7th ed.), (2023). Kolb, B, Whishaw, I.Q., & Teskey, G. C. Rented, or ebook, or pre-owned all okay

Course Description

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

- 1) Develop an overview of the field of psychology by studying and reflecting on the topics.
- 2) Appreciate how psychologists take a scientific approach to understanding human behavior and thought.
- 3) Practice the convention of scientific discourse appropriate to the audience, purpose and message.
- 4) Explain the real world phenomena by applying the concepts, theories, and methods learned in our course. Learning how to learn is a good start.
- 5) Nurture scientific thinking. This is an approach to information that combines a high degree of skepticism (questioning what “everybody knows”), followed by objectivity (using empirical data to separate fantasy from reality) and rationalism (practicing logical reasoning).

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You need to be able to use the following.

- Microsoft Office or equivalent
- PDF
- myLeo/Desire2Learn (D2L)
- Searching the internet for texts
- Using Library resources

In addition, refer to the following: <https://carleton.ca/online/online-learning-resources/essential-technological-skills/>

Instructional Methods

This is a web-based course. Each week you will be expected to complete required reading materials, and to complete assignments designed to encourage integration of the readings with previous and future readings and with applications to the real world.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Your attendance is a significant factor in student course grades. Start with attending our class and do the following basics.

- 1) Check and read class emails promptly for announcements, updates, clarifications, etc.
- 2) Take notes as you listen to lectures, read the assigned parts of the textbook to check if your listening comprehension matches with the textbook descriptions, and fill in the missing pieces.
- 3) Quiz yourself often. Can you define a concept in your own words? Can you answer 3 or 4 questions of the textbook practice questions correctly?
- 4) Review the materials on a regular basis.
- 5) Complete assigned coursework on time.
- 6) Please contact me when you have questions. The material is difficult, and no one learns everything perfectly the first time through. This class, and your time, is too important for you to spend time getting frustrated instead of learning

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Reading Assignments	50%
Midterm Exam	20%
Final Exam	30%
TOTAL	100%

Assessments

Exams: 50%

You will take two exams during the semester: a midterm (20% of grade) and a final (30% of grade). Exams may include multiple-choice and short-answer questions.

Weekly reading assignments: 50%

Each week you will submit some deliverable evidence of your engagement with the material for the week. All readings and their accompanying assignments will be made available on D2L/myLeo. These assignments may include, but are not limited to:

- o completing a reading guide,
- o watching videos relevant to the week's material,
- o leading a class discussion or responding to discussion posts,
- o submitting a video response

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage.

Artificial Intelligence

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
