COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will examine multiethnic American literature in terms of changing configurations of minority agency and voices. This course will focus on both historical and theoretical aspects of American literature from a wide range of minority groups based on gender, race/ethnicity, and sexual orientation in and outside of the U.S. We will critique the traditional representations of minorities and rediscover the struggles of marginalized authors looking for their voices. In this context, students will read a diverse range of multiethnic American literature that constructs and deconstructs the idea of “America” through the lens of minority groups, such as Black Americans, Pacific Islander/Asian Americans, Latino-Latina Americans, and Native Americans, as well as navigate minority theories, such as postcolonial studies, critical race theory, ethnic studies, and gender & sexuality studies. We will start with indigenous women’s writing and gradually shift our focus to a transnational scope in multiethnic American literature, dealing with globalization, neoliberalism, and imperialism.

The course aims to assist graduate students to train critical reading and writing skills by planning and developing final seminar papers aiming at publication in a peer-reviewed journal or section of a thesis/dissertation.

Course Objectives:

- Students will further develop their ability to compose conference abstracts.
- Students will demonstrate their engagement with the scholarly community.
- Students will practice their ability to teach a lesson in a graduate-level course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs, etc.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of a series of activities and assessments to assist you in achieving the outcomes and objectives of this course and instructional units/modules. By the end of this course, the class will read and discuss literature as well as secondary materials in a manner befitting a specialist in the discipline of English. You are expected to do all readings for class by the date indicated on this syllabus (see "Course Outline/Calendar" below). The readings are the foundation of our class meetings; we cannot discuss and understand the ideas and theories unless you have completed the required readings. On occasion there will be videos for you to watch on YouTube. You must have internet access to view them.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

- 1) Attend every class meeting.
- 2) Read every assigned reading.
- 3) Complete every assignment/exam on time.
- 4) Communicate with your professor if you are in doubt.

STUDENT CONTACT STATEMENT

Announcements: General tool for course communication; I will post short messages or reminders related to due dates or changes in the assignments.

Email: Please only use the official ETAMU Leo Email to communicate with me and your classmates. I will send general emails with information related to the course, date changes, assignments modifications, etc. or with information that relates to our content. I will send individual emails as needed. I will respond to emails in 24 hs. during the work week and on the next business day on weekends and holidays.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale and total points:

- A = 90%-100% (900-1000 points)
- B = 80%-89% (800-899 points)
- C = 70%-79% (700-799 points)
- D = 60%-69% (600-699 points)
- F = 59% or Below (below 599 points)

ASSESSMENTS

Weekly Reading Response	20% (200 points)
Class Reading Presentation	10% (100 points)
Research Proposal and Annotated Bibliography	20% (200 points)
Mini-Conference Presentation and Commentary	10% (100 points)
Literary Analysis Essay	40% (400 points)
	100% (1000 points)

Weekly Reading Response 20% (200 points)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Students will write a 200-word weekly reading response about the assigned reading for each week and upload it to LMS by Sunday night. It should include at least one discussion question about the assigned text.

Course Reading Presentation 10% (100 points)

Students will present one primary text in a semester and lead the class discussion for 20 minutes.

Research Proposal and Annotated Bibliography 20% (200 points)

Students will make a research proposal (including a 200-word abstract and 5 keywords) and compile an annotated bibliography for their potential final research paper. In the annotated bibliography, you must include 3 secondary sources in MLA style.

Mini-Conference Presentation and Commentary 10% (100 points)

Students will prepare for a 10-minute conference presentation about their final projects, followed by a Q&A. Students who do not present their projects this week will be assigned the role of discussant.

Literary Analysis Essay 40% (400 points)

Students will compose an analytical literary essay on one or two primary texts we read in class in 2000 words. Ideally, it can be developed into a conference paper, a manuscript for a peer-reviewed journal, or a chapter in thesis/dissertation.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Academic Honesty Policy

East Texas A&M University and the Department of Literature and Languages do not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. “Academic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another person and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments (using AI without critical caution), collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. Instructors uphold and support the highest academic standards, and students are expected to do likewise. Penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension and expulsion (East Texas A&M University-Code of Student Conduct 5.b[1, 2, 3]). Cheating, including plagiarizing papers in whole or part, will result in a grade of zero (0) on the assignment for the first offense and may result in failure of the course for any subsequent offenses.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is important for your success in this class. Therefore, each unexcused absence after two will result in the lowering of your final grade by a third of a grade.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Excused absences, such as those for documented illness, family tragedy, religious observance, or travel for inter-collegiate athletics, will not alter your grade. Also, use of a cell phone during class without permission will result in an unexcused absence (that means texting). Three unexcused absences will automatically result in failure for the course.

Assignment Policy

Student work must be completed and submitted when it is due. Students who know in advance they will miss class when an assignment is due must contact the instructor as soon as possible in advance of class to arrange for submission of the assignment. Deadline extensions and other allowances can often be provided before they are required.

Administrative Withdrawal

I reserve the right to drop a student from the course administratively for excessive absences or violations of student conduct codes.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

TAMUC Attendance

Nondiscrimination Notice

East Texas A&M University will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in East Texas A&M University buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and East Texas A&M Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.

Web url:

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all East Texas A&M campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.
