Attention: This is an online course with online requirements—students must have access to a computer with working email and internet. There are no excuses in such a quick online summer course for not having daily online access for completing work in the online environment—including immediate purchase of the two ebooks required for the course.

COURSE INFORMATION

Please note that this is a reading intensive course with assignments due every weekday.

There is also a No AI policy for this course and no outside materials, web searches, or information other than that assigned by the professor for this specific course will be allowed.

REQUIRED CLASS MATERIALS:

1. (REQUIRED)— Give Me Liberty 7th edition, Seagull version, volume 2 (ISBN 9781324041573)—digital edition with access to online resources.
2. (REQUIRED)— Voices of Freedom 7th edition, Seagull version, volume 2 (ISBN 9781324042280)—digital edition.

Double-check the textbooks you are purchasing are the correct version, edition and volume.

NOTE: Both ebooks can also be purchased through the publisher directly by following the links and instructions inside D2L or with a code purchased from the campus bookstore which students will use log in and create an account through the publisher by following the links and instructions inside D2L.

3. Students will need access to Microsoft Word, Google Docs (saved as a .docx to upload to the class), or other word processing software that can have files saved as .docx
4. Access to student email.
5. A reliable computer/laptop/compatible tablet with reliable internet access to take the course and do the daily classwork. (Smart phones will not provide sufficient access and ability to take the course and do coursework.)

Additional Class Materials: Students will need to check their myleo email daily and for any class related news and updates check in to the D2L class and do work every weekday. Any additional reading assignments, such as brief articles, videos, or primary documents, will be supplied by the instructor in class or through D2L.

Course Description:

This course will survey the history of the United States from 1865, the events that shaped the United States following the Civil War Era. This period saw the evolution of social beliefs regarding race, gender, citizenship, the role of government, the rights of individuals, industry, economics and international affairs. As each generation of Americans shaped their era, ideals and values changed. It is the goal of this course to encourage the analysis and discussion of these changes and their driving forces. In doing so, students need to remember important events, people, places, ideas, and issues pertaining to American political, social, economic, military, cultural and intellectual history.

Course Pre-Requisites, Co-Requisites:

Prerequisite and/or Co-requisite: ENG 1301 or 1302

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Explanation of Evaluation Criteria:	Grade Breakdown:
Exam #1 10%	A = 89.5-100
Exam #2 15%	B = 79.5-89.4
Exam #3 (Not Comprehensive Final Exam) 20%	C = 69.5-79.4
Daily Quizzes (35% combined)	D = 59.5-69.4
Weekly Primary Source Analysis (20% combined)	F = 0-59.4
Semester Total 100%

***Responsibility Quiz: Each student will have to take the Responsibility Quiz. These must be submitted by the Friday of the first week in class; failure to submit these sheets when due will result in a failing grade for the course regardless of other work completed. Questions regarding this particular course and departmental requirement should be addressed to the Department of History chairperson, Dr. Sharon Kowalsky. Students will not be dropped from the course for non-compliance.***

Required Reading: Textbook purchase of the two required ebooks is necessary starting the beginning of the first week of class. All work requires access to the ebooks, and there is no way to pass the class without purchasing access to both ebooks. The ebooks chosen have been selected to try and provide students with the most economical textbook purchase possible while still maintaining the content needs of the course. Access to the daily readings quizzes requires access to the online materials that comes with the Give Me Liberty ebook, and all exams and weekly primary source analysis assignments require access to the primary sources in Voices of Freedom and students' contextual knowledge gained from the Give Me Liberty book and online resources to understand the primary sources.

Daily Chapter Quizzes—InQuizitive Quizzes

There will be daily online multiple choice quizzes. There are links inside D2L to the book publisher's chapter InQuizitive Quizzes. Grades will also show up in D2L. There are completion questions inside the eBook for Give Me Liberty THESE ARE NOT THE WEEKLY QUIZZES. THEY WILL NOT TAKE THE PLACE OF THE InQuizitive Quizzes.

***Make sure you are taking the InQuizitive Quizzes linked through the D2L class in each chapter folder in the Give Me Liberty Textbook Access Folder***

Essay Exams: Two essay questions will appear on each exam, and students will choose one of these to write about. Only write one essay per exam. On the exam, these questions will be drawn randomly from a pool of questions that ask students to write a four paragraph essay using primary sources from Voices of Freedom. Students will need to follow instructions for the exams carefully to make sure they provide all the information required in the way it is asked for in the instructions. Your essay will be graded according to how well you understand, explain, and analyze both material learned in the Give Me Liberty text as well as Primary Source material provided in Voices of Freedom in order to answer the question. As part of the essays, students must refer directly to Primary Source material in Voices of Freedom and cite page numbers and textbook names for both Voices of Freedom and Give Me Liberty according to the exam directions. Lack of citation, use of AI in any way, or the use of sources other than those specifically assigned by the professor will result in a lost points and/or a zero for the exam grade.

Students will have two hours to take the essay exams—the time starts when the student opens the exams. Each exam will be available for three days, and students can take it at any two hour time slot during those three days. Students will have two hours to take the exam in the exam window AND save a copy in a Microsoft Word document and upload to the upload link for the exam.

Primary Source Analysis Assignments: Students are required to do two primary source analysis during the semester. Students can start it any time during the weeks they are assigned and must complete them before the deadline. For the Primary Source Analysis Assignments, students must refer directly to Primary Source material in Voices of Freedom and cite page numbers and textbook names for both Voices of Freedom and Give Me Liberty according to the exam directions. Lack of citation, use of AI in any way, or the use of sources other than those specifically assigned by the professor will result in a lost points and/or a zero for the assignment grade.

Make-ups—

Quizzes: There are no make-up quizzes for the class. Students will have from the start of the semester to take all quizzes in the course. Each quiz will close on the deadline. They will not be reopened. There is unlimited time and unlimited takes for quizzes until the deadline. Start early and do not wait until the last minute to take the readings quizzes. It takes some students a number of hours to do well, while other can complete it quickly—all which depends on each individual student's learning style.

Exams: Students will have two hours to take the essay exams—the time starts when the student opens the exams. Each exam will be available for three days, and students can take it at any two hour time slot during those three days. Students will have two hours to take the exam in the exam window AND save a copy in a Microsoft Word document and upload to the upload link for the exam. Students who have accommodation needs documented and registered with the SDS Office at ETAMU will need to contact the instructor of the course via email for instructions on how to access alternative testing according to their modification requirements. No make-up exams will be allowed unless there is a dire and documented reason for the student's request. The instructor of the course reserves the right to deny any make-up exam requests. No make-up exams requests for the Final Exam will be granted.

Assignments. There will be no make-ups allowed for primary source analysis assignments. Students who have accommodation needs documented and registered with the SDS Office at ETAMU will need to contact the instructor of the course via email for instructions on how to access alternative primary source analysis turn in instructions according to their modification requirements.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS— LMS

All course sections offered by East Texas A&M University have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). It is labeled as Brightspace D2L in your apps inside MyLeo. Below are technical requirements:

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a ETAMU campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Emailing the professor's university email address (Jessica.Wranosky@tamuc.edu) is the very best way to reach Dr. Wranosky. In every email, please make sure to provide your full name at the end, which course you are enrolled in, and a description of what your request or question is.

Dr. Wranosky will communicate with students through the email address they have on file in MyLeo (make sure yours is up to date and working throughout the semester) and D2L announcements. Please check these areas daily and before attending class. If an emergency arises, Dr. Wranosky will post the announcement for the class in one or more of these locations.

In all forms of class communication including all online forums, students are expected and required to maintain a respectful tone and use semiformal to formal language.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Class Calendar and Dates: While it is highly unlikely that the dates for the reading and assignments would change, I reserve the right to do so if the need presents itself. Any such changes will be announced in class or via the course website. The reading and writing assignments are due at the start of class and considered late thereafter.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Nondiscrimination Notice

East Texas A&M University will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in East Texas A&M University buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and East Texas A&M University Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.

Web url:

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all East Texas A&M University campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

East Texas A&M University Supports Students' Mental Health

The Counseling Center at East Texas A&M University, located in the Halladay Building, Room 203, offers counseling services, educational programming, and connection to community resources for students. Students have 24/7 access to the Counseling Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.tamuc.edu/counsel

AI Use in this Course:

NOTE: Use of AI for this course is not allowed in any way.

ALSO: Do not upload any information from this course to any AI software or website—that is considered academic dishonesty and/or intellectual property theft.

Uploading any content from this course (including exam review information, exam questions, any sound or video files of anyone in the class, lecture note information, lecture note outlines, and/or any content from the publisher's websites or textbooks) to AI software (including DALL-E, ChatGPT, etc., breaks copyright laws. To do so is illegal. AI software companies take ownership and use rights of any words, phrases, or files uploaded or used by their software, and students do not own any of the content from this course except for their own student created work. All AI software tracks users, and there are ways to know who uploaded what content. To break such laws is against university student code of conduct, as well as being an illegal action, and proper disciplinary procedures will be taken.

AI Use in Courses (Campus Draft Statement):

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
