2. Application of techniques and skills related to parenting.
3. Fundamental assessment of causes of challenges facing families.
4. Ability to demonstrate basic counseling skills related to family intervention.
5. Awareness and ability to effectively use basic parent and family definitions, data, and principles of practice.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Required preparation before class, and participation in each class session.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of postings, discussion, applications of content/experiential learning, reading and writing assignments, guided practice and perhaps even role-plays, and group activities. Self-reflection, self-evaluation, and offering and receiving feedback are essential instructional methods in this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Read ahead. Be present. Outline each chapter, first. Read chapter and review outline before assigned class time. Review outline and reconstruct core content daily for each discussion and activity. Actively participate in class. Ask questions.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%
B = 80%-89%
C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69%
F = 59% or Below

Total points corresponding to the final letter grades

A = 900-1000 Points
B = 800- 899 Points
C = 700- 799 Points
D = 600 -699 Points
F = 599 or Fewer Points

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Assessments

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Class Activities/Assignments	50%
Class Discussions/Participation	20%
Three, 5-Chapter Exams	30%
TOTAL	100%

- Daily activities posts, will be found under the Assignments tab in D2L. You will receive feedback, and grades for these each two weeks. Your responses must include both content from the text, as well as your opinion. Content from the text is to be summarized, and not directly quoted.
- Discussion posts will be found under a tab of that same name in D2L. You must post a response to the prompt, and then respond to two classmates' posts. These must be completed within the two-week period where they are posted, in order to receive credit. These will be reviewed, but will not necessarily receive feedback from your instructor. Feedback will be from classmates in Discussions; thus the importance of your daily responses.
- There will be an exam every two weeks of the course, for a total of 3 exams. All of equal weight, and each containing content from the chapters assigned for that period of time.

The following criteria will be used to determine participation & attendance points:

Class Participation & Attendance Rubric
3 – Meets or Exceeds Expectations
(10-12.5 points)

Proactive participation: leading, originating, informing, challenging contributions that reflect in-depth study, thought, and analysis of the topic under consideration. Clear application of learning. This does not mean dominating discussion or self-disclosure inappropriate to the circumstances. Full attendance in the class experience. No absence/no evident pattern of lateness.

2 – Meets Expectations
(8-10 points)

Reactive participation: supportive, follow-up contributions that are relevant and of value, but rely on the leadership and study of others, or reflect opinion/personal self-disclosure rather than study, contemplation, synthesis, and evaluation. One absences/no evident pattern of lateness.

1 – Minimally or Does Not Meet Expectations
(0-7 points)

Passive participation: present, awake, alert, attentive, but not actively involved or invested; Or Uninvolved: absent, present but not attentive, sleeping, texting/surfing, irrelevant contributions. More than two absences/pattern of lateness evident.

Reminder:* D2L reports the hours you are logged in and working on assignments. You must meet the 3 posted due dates in order to earn a passing grade in this course. Posting everything during the last week, will not suffice.

Missed assignments, discussions, presentations and projects cannot be accepted late, unless they are a consequence of a University approved absence, reviewed by your instructor. In those cases, an assigned paper covering the content missed from those chapters, with additional references, may be substituted by your instructor for activities missed.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE OUTLINE / CALENDAR

June 2nd through July 3rd (4 weeks and 4 days)

This outline is subject to change.

Notification will be posted if a significant change occurs or should due dates or requirements need to be adjusted.

July 3rd FINAL Exam (3rd Exam)

(Quiz 3 will be your final exam, due Thursday this week before 5p)

Welcome to class, and this excellent summer semester of learning. I am excited you have chosen to take this class, and have genuinely been anticipating for weeks, our work here together! I greatly enjoy teaching. And I particularly enjoy our professional field of Human Services/the undergraduate degree in Counseling.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The primary focus of this class is LEARNING. It is the most important consideration of our work together. As you are aware summer classes last a little shorter than 5 weeks, so the pace is considerably faster than a traditional semester. Five times as fast in fact. You will not have time to start a new job, travel, or prepare for other major life events. Please be aware that taking summer semester classes will require almost all your time. But, the great news is in exchange for that, you complete a semester's worth of work in under five weeks!

Toward that end, content above is summarized by the following:

1. Prepare for class.
 - Outline each chapter.
 - Read each chapter after outlining.
 - Attempt to reconstruct the key concepts of each chapter.
 - Do this BEFORE the topic is reviewed in class.
2. Attend class (Online, this means active, daily, participation in D2L)
 - This class utilizes experiential learning, and therefore one must be present. In D2L, that means actively reviewing and posting Discussions and Assignments. Actively participating means applying the content you have learned and prepared before class. Assessing main content for the chapter/discussion. Making your hypothesis. And then being brave enough, to explore your thoughts, knowledge, opinions, learning... out loud (in writing) with your peers!

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook

<https://inside.tamuc.edu/admissions/registrar/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf>.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum:

TAMUC Attendance

For more information about the attendance policy, please visit the webpages below.

Attendance.

<https://inside.tamuc.edu/admissions/registrar/generalInformation/attendance.aspx>

Please Note:

Attendance in this course is essential due to the experiential learning format utilized. Work missed for unexcused absences cannot be made up. More than three absences will lower a student's grade by one full letter. More than five absences will prevent a student from passing the course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are required to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. Improperly citing or failing to cite a quote or reference is academic dishonesty, and will result in disciplinary action up to and including failing the assignment, and in severe cases, failing the course. If you have questions about requirements or academic integrity, please, always contact your instructor first. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty, see the procedures below: Do utilize our campus writing centers for support and instruction.

Generating papers or assignments from Artificial Intelligence (AI), and representing that work as your own, is academic dishonesty, and will result in a failing grade and disciplinary action up to an including failing this course. Be certain ALL of your assignments, discussions, and or paper are YOUR own work. Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources. 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty
