Academic dishonesty: Instructors are required use of Turnitin.com for written assessment to help with plagiarism.

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one's own, etc.). Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, dismissal from class, expulsion from the University, and a failing grade.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I will check in on D2L and email on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. I will set quizzes and automatically graded work to release grade immediately. I will strive to grade all other work as it is turned in but writing/complex assignments may take seven days to be graded. I will respond to emails within 24 hours M-Th. You can send me a text to 903.413.1825 between 8:00am - 10:00pm and I will respond as soon as I see it.

COURSE SCHEDULE

This course is asynchronous meaning that it does not have set meeting times. The curriculum is designed with weekly assignments and is intended to be completed progressively over the five weeks allotted for this summer course. Students will have difficulty with being successful in this course if they don't allot adequate time to complete assignments on time.
