COURSE INFORMATION

Texts & Materials:

ALL Students are required to have a metronome (or metronome app) for technical repetition/rhythmic improvement and an electronic tuner (or tuner app) to improve intonation. This is highly recommended for all students taking saxophone lessons but required of majors. Texts and music for the course will vary depending on the student's level of proficiency. Students are expected to purchase a small amount of music each semester as well as have 3-4 high quality reeds in playable condition, quality reed holder, saxophone and sax accessories in working condition, notebook and reed tools at each lesson.

General Areas of Study

Tone Production, Breathing, Intonation, Articulation, Rhythm, Technique, Embouchure, Selecting and Adjusting reeds, Practice Techniques, Pedagogy, and Jazz Studies (including improvisation).

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate the basics of musical performance with special attention to rhythm, tone quality, range, musical phrasing, intonation, and style
2. Demonstrate the ability to perform music from different stylistic periods
3. Demonstrate the ability to perform music in varied key signatures, keys, and meter signatures
4. Demonstrate the ability to perform all major and minor scales in the designated form

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Scales

Major, minor (natural, harmonic, melodic), and chromatic. Additional scale/mode studies include: dorian, phrygian, lydian, mixolydian, locrian, whole tone, and diminished. Arpeggios and scales in thirds and fourths and additional scales/arpeggio patterns will also be included under scale studies.

Saxophone Majors

Saxophone majors are required to perform on woodwind juries or degreed recitals each semester of study. Absence or tardiness from a jury/recital will negatively affect your grade. Majors are also required to perform on at least one public recital or studio class performance each semester as well as attend all studio classes and on-campus saxophone recitals (faculty, student, and guest artist recitals/master classes). Scheduling of ALL required student degreed recitals & hearings will be completed prior to September 15th or the recital will be cancelled! The acquisition of a pianist for your final jury performance (if needed) will be required prior to November 15th or your jury may result in a grade of zero! All students must have rehearsed a minimum of 1 time with your accompanist prior to any jury exam or recital hearing. Note: All Jr., Sr. & Graduate Performance Majors are required to audition for the Concerto competition (preliminary round) during their juries in the Fall semester only.

Instructional Methods

The primary mode of instruction for Applied Saxophone is the weekly, face-to-face lesson. In the lesson, emphasis is placed on the technical and musical development of the student through a series of etudes, patterns and literature.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

In addition to the weekly lesson, students are expected to practice daily in order to progress towards their musical goals. Active listening to related musical genres should also be a daily part of your practice routine.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Grading assessment is based on attendance, preparation, progress, and performance of study materials to include repertoire works, etudes, scale/mode studies and any other fundamental exercises as assigned by the professor. You will be assigned a weekly grade in lessons (60%) based on the above criteria and along with your jury grade (30%) and scale/arpeggio midterm (10%) will average into your final grade in the course. 70% weekly lesson grade & 30% jury grade will be the grading percentages for non-majors. One unexcused absence will be allowed before the course grade is affected. Each unexcused absence after that will result in a grade of zero for the weekly lesson missed. Tardiness will be recorded and will negatively affect your grade. Unexcused absences and tardiness from weekly studio classes will negatively affect your grade. Note: Please be warmed up before your lesson so we can make the best use of your lesson time.
