COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook Required:

Through TopHat, you will gain access to the following course materials:

Johnson, Gavin P., Ashanka Kumari, Emily Littlejohn, Brian McShane, and Rachel McShane, Eds. Writing Inquiry [2023 edition].

For this course, we will be using a platform called Top Hat that is included through ETAMU's Inclusive Access fee that was charged to your bursar account when you registered for this course. You will not need to make any additional purchases. Top Hat will be accessible through our course shell in D2L (Brightspace – the Learning Management System). You may receive an email about being able to opt out of this inclusive access; however, Top Hat is required for the course.

To gain access to TopHat, you will need to create an account using your LeoMail account (university email). The campus bookstore will send you an email about this. Be on the lookout for this email at the start of the semester. If you have any issues with Top Hat, you should contact support@tophat.com.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Software Required:

- D2L (Brightspace)
- TopHat
- LeoMail (This is your university email account.)
- MS Word: We will use Word in this class. Students have free access to Office 365. We will take time in class to make sure everyone has access and can navigate in Word. Please note: all documents need to be submitted as a .docx. Google docs, Pages, etc., will not be accepted.

Course Description

ENG 1301: College Reading and Writing. Three semester hours. Introduces students to writing as an extended, complex, recursive process and prepares students for English 1302, which more rigorously examines the forms and structures of argument and means to approaching multiple audiences. In 1301 students will write at least weekly, and will work on essay organization and development. The course will emphasize close reading, summarizing, and analysis of expository texts, including student writing.

Core Curriculum Course Objectives

- Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
- Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

English 1301 Learning Outcomes

1. Define important terms/concepts including, but not limited to, literacy, sponsor, code-switching, code-meshing, embodiment, and writing processes;
2. Discuss the ways these terms expand based on cultural and communicative practices;
3. Examine scholarly, personal, and/or multimodal course texts that detail varying understandings and applications of key terms/concepts;
4. Develop writing processes that allow for personal exploration of key terms/concepts;
5. Engage in collaboration that supports individualized and communal understanding and writing development;
6. Consider the various affordances and constraints of composing using different technologies, practices, styles, and/or languages;
7. Compose texts across different genres of writing that further expand key terms/concepts based on personal experience and engagement with course texts;
8. Reflect on your writing experiences and literacy practices;
9. Design individualized learning goals appropriate for a first-year writing course;

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

10. Assess individualized learning goals based on labor and performance alongside feedback from peers and the instructor.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need:

- Flash drive, data stick, thumb drive, or other means of storing digital versions of the essays and other material you generate. *Always keep a backup of EVERYTHING you turn in.
- A valid, working, university email (Leomail) address that you check every day.
- Regular internet access.
- Access to a computer with a word processing program and a printer. Your assignments must be typed and uploaded into D2L in a .doc or .docx file format. ETAMU students have access to a free version of MW Office. If you wish to submit your assignments as a hard copy, this is welcome also.

Instructional Methods

This is a F2F section that meets Monday, Wednesday, and Friday each week unless there is a University holiday. There is no provision for online or hybrid options for class attendance.

Student Responsibilities aka Tips for Success in the Course

You are expected to be present at every class meeting and participate in the discussions and activities. This is one of the easiest parts of your grade to earn. Please make sure you complete the reading assignment prior to class so you can participate fully and make the most of the in-class discussion. Writing assignments need to be completed and submitted prior to or on the date they are due unless arrangements have been made with me 24 hours PRIOR to the due date. If you need extra time for an assignment, let's talk about it. I can be very flexible if I know beforehand. If you wait until after the due date, there is very little I can do for you.

A note about Attendance and Participation:

- put your phone away – silence your phone and do not text or surf while in class; this includes earbuds/headphones, etc.
- prepare – before coming to class complete any reading & writing assignments
- be on time
- participate – by engaging in class discussions, listening attentively, taking notes, asking questions when confused, answering questions, etc.
- stay in class until dismissed – There is no such thing as partial attendance, you are either here for the entire class or you are absent. Please see me if you need to be absent so we can discuss any homework/assignments.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

Grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%; B = 80%-89%; C = 70%-79%; D = 60%-69%; F = 59% or Below

Writing Assignments 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5	5 assignments at 10 pts each = 50 pts total
Daily Journal Writing and Class Activities	30
Writing Assignment 6/Final Project	20
Total Points possible	100

Full prompts and due dates for each assignment will be available in D2L and discussed in class.

At the beginning of each class, you will write for 10 minutes in your journal. Since this class is about writing, we will make it a priority to write. It is necessary for you to be here for every class to receive full points toward your Daily Journal Writing assignment. These cannot be made up.

We will have 5 Writing Assignments. A1, A2, A3, A4, and A5 are 10 points each whereas A6 (Final Project) is scored at 20 points. The daily journal writing and class activities such as short writing, peer review, etc. are worth 30 points. To earn all the necessary points to pass this class, it is imperative that you come to class and participate. Many of the assignments are difficult, at best, to make up if you miss class. The journal writing cannot be made up. It is my intention to assist everyone in passing the class, but I need you to let me know what is going on and how best to help you.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by East Texas A&M University have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

LMS Requirements:

<https://community.brightspace.com/s/article/Brightspace-Platform-Requirements>

LMS Browser Support:

https://documentation.brightspace.com/EN/brightspace/requirements/all/browser_support.htm

YouSeeU Virtual Classroom Requirements:

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Interaction with Instructor Statement

If you email me Monday-Friday, expect a response within 48-hours. If I do not respond within that time, feel free to send up a follow email...seriously! Please do! I get a LOT of emails and sometimes one might get lost in the shuffle, or I simply might not have seen it. Never feel bad about following-up. If you email me after 5pm on a Friday, though, you will most likely not get a response until late Monday at the earliest. I like my weekends just like you. You are welcome to email me nonetheless, just please be aware the response will not be as quick as an email sent during the week. You are always welcome to come to drop-in hours in my office.

Communication is SO important in this course! If you communicate with me, I can and will do whatever I can to best help you. However, if you do not communicate with me, I cannot even begin to know what you need or how I can help. Communication is key. You can email me, talk with me before or after class, or come by during my drop-in hours. I am here however you need, but you need to help me help you by utilizing good communication practices.

Attendance

It is expected that you will be here for each and every class meeting. Having said that, I know that life gets in the way sometimes. Please let me know if you need to miss class for any reason. I do not need specifics about the situation; I just need to know what to expect regarding your attendance. The University does not recognize absences unless it is for a university sponsored event, and I do not have a policy for excused absences.

Class Etiquette

What is etiquette? According to Wordnik, etiquette is the “Conventional requirement or custom in regard to social behavior or observance; propriety of conduct as established in any class or community or for any occasion; good manners; polite behavior”. In this class, we will display etiquette in various ways. Some of those ways include removing headphones/earbuds, listening to each other, setting aside and silencing your phone, arriving on time, and asking and answering questions. There are other ways and we will discuss them as situations arise, but this is a good place to start.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Students who choose to engage in inappropriate behavior will be directed to leave class. If a student is directed to leave class, they will need to meet with me during drop-in hours before returning to class. If inappropriate behavior is engaged during the group project, ALL parties will meet with me in my office before returning to class and the student(s) at fault may or may not receive a “0” for the assignment. I have ZERO tolerance for bullying or harassment of any and all forms.

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with the Department Head or Assistant Department Head by completing a Student Grievance Form (available in the main office, HL 141). In the event that the instructor is the Department Head, the student should schedule a meeting with the Dean of the College of Arts, Sciences, and Humanities after following the steps outlined above; if the instructor is the Assistant Department Head, students should schedule a meeting with the Department Head. Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 \(“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”\).

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance and will be to the students’ benefit.

AI Use in this Course

AI (chat bot) use will not be allowed for the majority of assignments in this course per university policy (see below). There will be some activities/an assignment where we will investigate AI uses and make some judgements about appropriateness of said uses.

Writing is a skill that one must practice in order to get better at it. Despite what you may think, writing is still a necessary skill for employment. Composing may be virtual now but you still need to know how to put words together and how to make appropriate rhetorical choices to get your message across.

Academic Honesty/Plagiarism:

The official departmental policy: “Instructors in the Department of Literature and Languages do not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Instructors uphold and support the highest academic standards, and students are expected to do likewise. Penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion. (East Texas A&M University Code of Student Conduct 5.b [1,2,3])

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

If you ever have any questions about a particular use of a source, always ask! I want you to avoid plagiarism, too, so I will help you do so whenever and wherever I can. Do what you can to take advantage of this support – look innocent in addition to being innocent when it comes to charges of plagiarism.

Students guilty of academic dishonesty or plagiarism can expect to fail the assignment in question or the entire course depending on the nature of the incident.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Nondiscrimination Notice

East Texas A&M University will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Attendance

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and Procedure 13.99.99.R0.01.

AI Use in Courses

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided, the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Collection of Data for Measuring Institutional Effectiveness

To measure the level of compliance with the university's Institutional Effectiveness guidelines, throughout the semester, I will collect some of the ungraded texts you produce. The texts will be part of a portfolio created on your behalf and will be measured to ensure that our program "promotes practices that result in higher student academic achievement; an enhanced student experience; aligned and transparent decisions; and readily available information for improvement, accountability, and accreditation" (see "Department of Institutional Effectiveness," <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutus/institutionalEffectiveness/default.aspx>). This is solely an assessment of program effectiveness and in no way affects students' course grades or GPAs.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Students with Disabilities -- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
