COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Expectations and Participation:

- ✓ Active participation in this web-based course is expected. It is recommended that students log in into the course module weekly to stay on track with the assigned reading material, discussion post, assignment, and project.
- ✓ Students are expected to take an active learning approach in this course and engage in the course content to positively impact the learning experience for everyone.
- ✓ Complete all discussion posts, assignments, and papers by deadlines.
- ✓ Incorporate knowledge gained from the text, personal experiences, peers' feedback, and other resources to formulate ideas on your responses.

Students who enroll at East Texas A&M University will have access to an email account via myLeo. All instructors' emails sent from D2L (including all other university official emails) will go to students' myLeo email account, so students need to check their account regularly. Students are also encouraged to email their instructor using the myLeo email.

Course Assessments: This course is made up of a series of module assignments and assessments to assist students in achieving the course learning outcomes. In each module the students will work on combinations of readings, discussions, journal articles, videos, or self-study research.

Student Introduction: Students will participate in student introduction where you will introduce yourself to the class and follow the prompts provided in D2L. Follow the "Course Calendar" for the due date of the assignment.

Discussion Assignment: Students will read the assigned readings and prepare a written critique to post. As a minimum, each critique must offer a short summary of the focus and main thesis presented by the author in the article/chapter. The body of each critique will contain the student's assessment of the ideas expressed in the chapters and the reason(s) for the assessment. Critiquing the material includes stating the key ideas and evaluating them for soundness and relating them to the course objectives and content. The critique must conclude with one or two concerns the chapters did not address and/or areas that might serve as foundations for future research. Detailed instructions are available in the course module. Follow the "Course Calendar" for the due date of the assignment.

Needs Assessment: Students will conduct a knowledge and skills needs assessment of their choice utilizing the resources available in the course module. It can be an employees' knowledge and skills assessment in their workplace or another organization of their choice. Students will refer to the course module for detailed instructions on the assignment. Follow the "Course

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Research Paper: Students will write a research paper from a list of topics provided in the course module. The research paper will be between 3,000 – 4,000 words, utilize a minimum of 15 references and adhere to standard APA (7th ed.) guidelines. The research paper should basically constitute a literature review of an aspect of the course that caught your attention or interest. Students will type the research paper using double-spaced with Times New Roman 12-point font. The format will include 1-inch margins on the top, bottoms, and sides, and fully comply with APA (7th ed.) guidelines. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Reaction Paper: Students will write a 500 – 750 words reaction paper to describe the lesson(s) learned from the course and how they can apply the information and content in their professional career. In the course module, students will find some question prompts to guide their writing. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

The preferred method of communication is email; thus, use email to message as well as schedule e-conferencing.

The assessment feedback time is within one week of the assignment due date. Any delays in this time (e.g., due to travel) will be communicated.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Submitted assignments should not have been submitted for any previous courses.

Students are expected to submit all assignments no later than their due dates/times. Any assignment submitted past the due date/time (i.e., by the end of the day, ETAMU time, of the respective due date) will receive a zero without exception unless an extension is approved by the instructor in advance of the due date/time (note: a request for an extension in advance of the due date/time does not mean an extension is approved; explicit approval before the due date/time is required to avoid a zero). Exigencies will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette> suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in East Texas A&M University buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and East Texas State University Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.

<https://inside.tamuc.edu/aboutus/policiesproceduresstandardsstatements/rulesprocedures/34safet-yofemployeesandstudents/34.06.02.r1.pdf>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all East Texas A & M University campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886- 5868 or 9-1-1.

Mental Health and Well-Being

The university aims to provide students with essential knowledge and tools to understand and support mental health. As part of our commitment to your well-being, we offer access to Telus Health, a service available 24/7/365 via chat, phone, or webinar. Scan the QR code to download the app and explore the resources available to you for guidance and support whenever you need it.

Course Calendar

This schedule incorporates details associated with the course's weeks and associated modules. Specific assignments for each module can be found in each module home page. Students are encouraged to visit the course module on a regular basis. Your faculty will notify you via D2L announcement or email should there be any changes to this schedule.

- No late assignments will be accepted. All Modules are available at the start of the term.
