Class Time 9:30-10:45 AM, 11:00 AM-12:15 PM, 2:00- 3:15 PM on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Textbook(s) Required: For this course, we will be using a platform called Top Hat, which is included through A&M-Commerce's Inclusive Access fee, charged to your bursar account when you registered for this course. There are additional texts that I recommend as part of the readings, which can be found on D2L. You will not need to make any additional purchases. Top Hat will be accessible through our course shell in D2L. While you will receive an email about being able to opt out of this inclusive access, Top Hat is required for the course.

To gain access to Top Hat, you will create an account using your LeoMail (university email) when you receive an email from the campus bookstore. Be on the lookout for this email at the start of the semester. If you have any issues with Top Hat, you should contact support@tophat.com.

To join Top Hat, you must click on the Top Hat link in your D2L course on a web browser. A Deep Link or the Top Hat launch link should be in the "Content" menu. Upon being redirected to Top Hat, you can create an account if you are new to Top Hat or log in if you have an existing account. Please follow your teacher's specific directions and report any access issues immediately.

Through Top Hat, you will gain access to the following course materials:

Johnson, Gavin P., Ashanka Kumari, Emily Littlejohn, Brian McShane, and Rachel McShane, Eds. Writing Inquiry [2023 edition]. Top Hat.

COURSE INFORMATION

ENGL 1301: College Reading and Writing. Three semester hours. Introduces students to writing as an extended, complex, recursive process and prepares students for English 1302, which more rigorously examines the forms and structures of argument and means of approaching multiple audiences. In 1301, students will write weekly and will work on essay organization and development. The course will emphasize close reading, summarizing, and analysis of expository texts, including student writing.

Every day, you make thousands of decisions on your own. You can either hope to make good decisions or learn how. Though the objectives of every section of ENGL 101 are the same, most instructors focus on a topic or a question they're interested in. That's the case here. One of my research topics is decision literacy—the decisions we take or reject to read, write, grow, succeed, fail, think, live, communicate, challenge, win, lose, play, perform, and all other ways in which decisions shape our personal and public lives. In this course, you'll write about the ways decisions shape our lives, write a literacy narrative about the importance of decision-making in your life, write about a process known as "decision literacy," and write an interactive digital text that educates readers about a significant aspect of personal or professional decision-making.

To accomplish those goals, we'll do a lot of writing and talk and write a lot about the writing we do. This course is designed to help you develop three writing skills: (1) Making decisions to write effectively in different formats for different audiences, under different situations, and for different purposes; (2) Choosing, analyzing, and incorporating words and ideas of others into your writing so you come across as an informed member of discourse community; (3) and developing a process of decision making that will help you be a successful writer in the future.

CORE CURRICULUM COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
- Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

English 1301 Learning Outcomes

1. Define important terms/concepts, including, but not limited to, literacy, sponsor, code-switching, code-meshing, embodiment, and writing processes to build better decision-making skills for better writing.
2. Discuss the ways these terms expand based on cultural and communicative practices.
3. Examine scholarly, personal, and/or multimodal course texts that detail varying understandings and applications of key terms/concepts;
4. Develop writing processes that allow for personal exploration of key terms/concepts;
5. Engage in collaboration that supports individualized and communal understanding and writing development;
6. Consider the various affordances and constraints of composing using different technologies (analog, digital, and/or multimodal), practices, styles, and/or languages;
7. Compose texts across different genres and media of writing that further expand key terms/concepts based on personal experiences and engagement with important course texts;
8. Reflect on your writing experiences and literacy practices;
9. Design individualized learning goals appropriate for a first-year writing course; and
10. The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
11. Assess individualized learning goals based on labor and performance alongside feedback from peers and the instructor.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

1. Please don't miss class.

- I designed this course so that our class time will help you develop the skills to succeed on the course projects. If you miss class, achieving success on those projects will be difficult.
- Missing more than two classes will impact your final grade.
- If you do miss class, please email me.
- If you must be isolated due to COVID-19 or another significant illness, like a cold or the flu, please let me know, and I will help you contact the right person.
- Our schedule will change. Up-to-date details will be projected on the screen at the start of every class meeting and in the announcements, I send you every Sunday and Wednesday

2. Do your homework.

- You'll have something to read, watch, and write before almost every class meeting.
- I don't assign busy work. Everything I ask you to do will help you develop the skills to succeed.
- If you don't do the daily reading and writing, you could be behind and might lose your total points for the semester (see Major assignments and percentage of final grade). More importantly, you'll lose the learning experience.
- Late work is accepted only on condition. Please email and clarify the reason for your late work, and I will believe you. Uninformed late work (Submitting work after 48 hours without notice) is unprofessional and will impact the total grade.

3. Pay attention.

- I'm going to call on you. Be attentive to what's being said so you can do your best.

4. Do your best.

- This course is designed to challenge and help you achieve those challenges. I don't expect you to do everything perfectly, but I hope you do your best.

5. Ask questions!

- Ask if you have a question about a concept, an assignment, or anything.

6. Read instructions carefully.

- Details matter. Please read all instructions with care so you can complete tasks fully.

7. Keep communication lines open.

- Life is complicated. Let me know if you're in a situation that makes it difficult to succeed.
- Email. I get many emails. When you write to me, put "ENGL 13901" with "CRN" on it and put a subject heading briefly describing what you're writing to me about (for example, ENGL 101: I was absent Monday/ need help with x assignment). If you don't hear back from me within 24 hours, please email and remind me.
- Make sure to check D2L announcements.

8. If you are working on a computer

There will be many occasions when I need you to have a computer in class. Let me know if you don't have one so I can help you get a loaner.

9. Technology use

Use your technology only when I tell you. Looking, using, or being on the phone while I am teaching is disrespectful.

COURSE POLICIES

1. How many absences and late arrivals are allowed?

- Absences

- 2 absences are allowed with no penalty.
 - No excuse is required. I respect your privacy.
 - If absent more than 2 times, please email/ inform me.
 - If you're in a situation where you expect many absences, let me know.
 - Late arrival
 - 2 late arrivals are allowed.
 - If you're late more than two times, you will be notified by me so that it doesn't impact your performance.
- 2. What to do if you miss class
- Contact me by email.
 - Please make sure to put "ENGL 101: Absence" in the subject line.
 - If there was a graded activity that day, I'll let you know how to make it up.

3. Let me know about anything that affects your learning.
 Do you have a disability, learning challenge, or other condition affecting your learning or participation in class? Let me know. I want you to be the best learner you can be. See More Details About Learning Support and Reasonable Accommodations below for more details.

- 4. Show respect to yourself, your work, and others.
- Listen, speak, read, and write thoughtfully and with an eye on how others perceive and feel.
 - Respect the people around you. Please make our classroom a clean, safe, professional, collaborative environment for everyone. If someone is harming your experience, let me know.
 - Respect each other's privacy. It's illegal to record audio or video or take pictures without the explicit consent of the other students and me. Do not share other people's writing without their permission.
- 5. Use your technology wisely.
- You're expected to have a working laptop computer, but you don't always need it in class. If you don't have one, let me know, and I'll help arrange a loan.
 - If you prefer to work on a laptop in class, no problem.
 - Please don't check messages, email, or social media during class. If you're off task, I'll give you one warning. After that, I'll count you absent for each additional warning.
- 6. No cheating
- You are expected to do your work. Use the words or ideas of others (family, friends, books, websites, whatever) without clearly signaling that you're doing so, and you're committing plagiarism. Committing plagiarism results in, at a minimum, earning a zero on the assignment.

ASSESSMENTS

THIS SYLLABUS MAY CHANGE

Life is complicated and so is teaching and learning. I'll project up-to-date details on the screen at the start of each class meeting, and in the Announcements, I send you every Sunday and Wednesday morning. Please pay attention to these so you don't get confused.

GRADING

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND PERCENTAGE OF FINAL GRADE

Assignment	Description	Percent of final
------------	-------------	------------------

Attendance	You need to be present. A significant number of absences would affect your grade.	10%
Text check	These are honor-based assignments. I'll ask if you read/watched/played the assigned texts for the day.	5%
Note check	1 pt each: These are short writings to prepare for class meetings or that are written during class meetings/ after class meetings. You will get a total of five of those (5x2=10). Mental Health and Well-Being

The university aims to provide students with essential knowledge and tools to understand and support mental health. As part of our commitment to your well-being, we offer access to Telus Health, a service available 24/7/365 via chat, phone, or webinar. Scan the QR code to download the app and explore the resources available to you for guidance and support whenever you need it.

As an Institutional Member of the National Association of Schools of Music, East Texas State A&M University supports the Association's commitment to student health and wellness. The following web address provides links to information for resources related to physical and mental well-being, as well as assists in offering preventative measures that students can take to avoid serious and/or chronic conditions: Musician Health and Safety - East Texas A&M University
