Policies and Important Information

Course Syllabus | Fall 2025

This syllabus is subject to change at discretion of the professor to allow for success of students in the course.

Instructor Interaction Statement:

E-mail response or acknowledgement from the instructor will be within two business days. When emailing please include course number and name. Mistakes happen and if I miss your email, please send a follow-up email! Grading of assessments will occur within a week unless circumstances arise that prevent this from being accomplished, but effort will be made to complete in a timely manner. Feel free to stop by my office during office hours or when the door is open.

Material Covered and Instructional Methods:

Course material will be separated into units based on species of livestock with a unit exam (hourly exam; 100 pts) at completion of material. A cumulative final will occur at the conclusion of the course. Attendance is expected as points will be earned in class through various assessment methods including quizzes, group work, and discussions. See above for points and grading scale.

Exam 1	100 pts	Beef and Dairy Cattle
Exam 2	100 pts	Sheep and Goat
Exam 3	100 pts	Swine
Exam 4	100 pts	Poultry
Exam 5	100 pts	Equine
Final Exam	175 pts	Cumulative

Late Assignments, Absences and Bonus Points:

Two late assignments will be accepted and graded at 50%. Must be completed fully and submitted within one week of the due date. After two, no more late assignments will be accepted.

Students are expected to attend all classes as participation and classwork points will be awarded sporadically throughout the semester in the form of pop quizzes, worksheets, and attendance. If absences are to occur, students must work with the professor to complete necessary tasks to make up for information covered during absence. If an absence is to occur during an exam, the student must give the professor 24 hr notice via e-mail at minimum for arrangements to be made.

Bonus points or changes to points on the syllabus are subject to change at the discretion of the professor.

AI use policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented source.
