COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need to be able to use the learning management system, as well as Microsoft Word and PowerPoint. You will also use presentation and graphics programs.

Instructional Methods

- Students are expected to attend all scheduled seminars. Punctuality and full participation until seminar is dismissed is expected. It is the responsibility of the student to contact the instructor regarding make-up work for excused absences and/or late arrivals and provide confirmation of the reason for being absent or tardy (for example, a doctor's note). The student and instructor will agree on the content of the make-up work. Unexcused absences or absences for which make-up work is not completed will result in a 2-point deduction of total points earned for each absence. This also applies if a student

Artificial Intelligence

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities.
