All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (see Student's Guide Book, Policies and Procedures, conduct).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students must be proficient with basic computer skills and with a word processor, presentation software and use of library database for legal research.

Instructional Methods

This course will use the D2L platform for dissemination of materials, lecture notes, presentations, class discussions, quizzes, exams and course assignments.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

To succeed in this course, consider the following suggestions:

- Read carefully the entire Syllabus, making sure that all aspects of the course are clear to you and that you have all the materials required for the course.
- Familiarize yourself with the D2L learning system environment—how to navigate it and what the various course areas contain. If you know what to expect as you navigate the course, you can better pace yourself and complete the work on time.
- If you are not familiar with Web-based learning be sure to review the processes for posting responses online and submitting assignments.
- To stay on track throughout the course, begin each week by consulting the Syllabus. The Syllabus provides an overview of the course and indicates due dates for submitting assignments, posting discussions, and taking quizzes and examinations.
- Check Announcements regularly for new course information.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%	Module Quizzes = 10 points x 12 = 120 points
B = 80%-89%	Exams and Final = 100 points x 4 = 400 points
C = 70%-79%	Legal Research Assignments = 50 points x 4 = 200 points
D = 60%-69%	Discussions/Class Participation = 80 points
F = 59% or Below	Total Points = 800

Assessments

1. Readings as assigned.
2. Module quizzes – 10 point each x 12 modules = 120 points total
3. Three examinations and a final – 100 points each x 4 exams = 400 points total. The final will not be comprehensive. Normally there will be no make-up exams.
4. Legal Research Assignments – 20 points each x 10 assignments = 200 points total.
5. Class participation is required = 80 points total. Each student is required to make at least one thoughtful discussion post for each module and are due at no later than the end of the week of each module. This is the class participation component of the grade. See the Grading Rubric for discussions in D2L. As a general guideline, your grade on this portion will be a function of the quality, quantity, timeliness and consistency of your posts (including your original posts and your replies to other posts) on the bulletin board. Please note the deadline for discussion board participation in the course schedule in D2L. Please also note that heavy activity during the last few days cannot compensate for a lack of participation during the term. Plan to participate throughout the course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources

Protocol and Grading Rubric for Discussion Posts.

Discussion postings must demonstrate an observable understanding of the cases being discussed. The understanding will be at the critical legal thinking level. Discussion postings should be a minimum of one short paragraph and a maximum of two paragraphs. Postings should be evenly made during the discussion period (not concentrated all on one day or at the beginning and/or end of the period) with 4 postings being the target. Avoid postings that are limited to "I agree" or "great idea" or "Judges were spot on in the mule skinning case", etc. If you agree (or disagree) with the case or a posting of another student please expound as to why you agree or disagree supporting your assertion with concepts from the case or chapter or by bringing in a related example or experience. Try to use quotes from the cases or the chapter to support your posting using page numbers to cite your quotes. Build on the postings of others to create threads. Bring in related prior knowledge (work experience, readings, family experiences, etc.) Use proper etiquette (language, typing, etc.)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Grading Rubric for Discussion Posts

Criteria	1.6 (Exceeds Expectations)	1.2 (Meets Expectations)	0.8 (Does Not Meet Expectations)
Initial Posting	Posting is well developed that fully addresses and develops all aspects and concepts	Posting is adequately developed and addresses most aspects of the case; lacks full development of concepts	No posting; or copies the post of another; or does not demonstrate an understanding
Frequency	Participates 4 or more times throughout the week	Participates 2-3 times throughout the week	Participates not at all; or copies the post of another
Follow-Up Posting	Demonstrates analysis of other's postings; extends meaningful discussion by building on previous postings	Elaborates on an existing posting without further comment or observation or does not enrich discussion	Posts no follow-up responses to others; or copies the post of another; or merely agrees or disagrees
Content Contribution	Posts factually correct, reflective and substantive contribution; invites and advances discussion	Repeats facts of case; lacks full development of concept or thought; or does not add substantive information to discussion	No post or posts information that is off-topic, incorrect, or irrelevant to discussion; or copies the post of another
Clarity & Mechanics	Contributes to discussion with clear, concise comments formatted in an easy to read style that is free of grammatical or spelling errors	Contributes information to discussion with minor clarity or mechanics errors	No post or posts long, unorganized or rude content that may contain multiple errors or may be inappropriate; or copies the post of another

College of Business
Academic Dishonesty Policy

Statement of Ethical and Professional Conduct:

The College of Business at East Texas A&M University faculty, staff and students will follow the highest level of ethical and professional behavior. We will strive to be recognized as a community with legal, ethical and moral principles and to teach and practice professionalism in all that we do.

In an academic environment we will endeavor to not only teach these values but also to live them in our daily lives and work. Faculty and staff will be held to the same standards and expectations as our students.

The Academic Dishonesty Policy of the Accounting Department is governed by the following university procedures: 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty and 13.99.99.R0.10 Graduate Student Academic Dishonesty. You may read the procedure in its entirety from the University's website.

Failure to abide by these principles will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal.

Actionable Conduct:

CHEATING: Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, notes, study aids or other devices or materials in any academic exercise. Unauthorized materials may include anything or anyone that gives a student assistance, and has not been specifically approved in advance by the instructor.

COMPLICITY: Intentionally or knowingly helping, or attempting to help, another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

ABUSE AND MISUSE OF ACCESS AND UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS: Students may not abuse or misuse computer access or gain unauthorized access to information in any academic exercise.

FABRICATION: Making up data or results, and recording or reporting them; submitting fabricated documents.

FALSIFICATION: Manipulating research materials, equipment, or processes, or changing or omitting data or results such that the research is not accurately represented in the research record.

FORGERY: Making a fictitious document, or altering an existing document, with the intent to deceive or gain advantage.

MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS: Submitting substantial portions of the same work (including oral reports) for credit more than once without authorization from the instructor of the class for which the student submits the work.

PLAGIARISM: The appropriation of another person's ideas, processes, results, or words without giving appropriate credit.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING GROUP PROJECTS: If someone in a group commits academic misconduct, the entire group could be held responsible for it as well. It is important to document clearly who contributes what parts to the joint project, to know what group members are doing, and how they are acquiring the material they provide.

VIOLATION OF DEPARTMENTAL OR COLLEGE RULES: Students may not violate any departmental or college rule relating to academic matters.

Sanctions:

If a student is accused of academic dishonesty, the faculty or staff member making the allegation will use East Texas A&M University and/or Texas A&M University System Policy and Procedures as appropriate to guide sanctions.

First Offenses:

- The most common penalty imposed by a faculty member for a first violation is an “F” in the course. Less severe penalties may be imposed if the circumstances warrant. Examples of lesser penalties include:
- A grade reduction for the course;
- A zero on the assignment;
- A requirement to participate in extra requirements or training;
- Some combination of these.

A second offense may result in separation (suspension or expulsion) from the University.

Procedures:

Once a charge of academic dishonesty has been made, the student may not drop the class until the academic dishonesty process has been completed. If a student withdraws from the University while a charge of academic dishonesty is pending, he/she will be blocked from re-enrolling until the matter is resolved using this procedure.

If the Dean of Graduate Studies or Provost Office informs the faculty or staff member that the incident is a first offense, and the student accepts responsibility for the charge, and the student and faculty or staff member agree on the penalty, assessment of the penalty concludes the disciplinary action.

If the student disagrees with the charge or any of the above penalties for a first offense, he/she is entitled to appeal in writing to the Department Head/Director, and then to the Academic Dean/Director of School. The decision of the Academic Dean/Director of School regarding the student’s appeal of a first offense is final.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Appeal of Course Grade

(Refer to TAMU-C Procedure: 13.99.99.R0.05)

EAST TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY PROCEDURE

13.99.99. R0.05 Student's Appeal of Instructor's Evaluation Effective September 1, 1996 Revised December 15, 1999 Revised February 8, 2007 Supplements System Policy 13.02

1. The final grades awarded by faculty members are their expert judgment concerning student performance. Students challenging a final grade must show that the instructor's judgment was unfair based on: a) some basis other than performance, or b) standards different from those applied to other students in the same course section, or c) a substantial, unreasonable, and unannounced departure from previously articulated standards or the syllabus.
2. Students who believe their grade to be unfair must first discuss the matter with the instructor.
3. If no satisfactory resolution is reached with the instructor, or if the instructor is unavailable, the student shall appeal to the Department Head. A grade appeal must be initiated in writing with the Department Head (or Dean if the Department Head is the instructor) within six (6) months of the last day of the semester in which the grade was awarded. The Department Head will examine the student's appeal to determine whether the student has established an apparent case of unfair academic evaluation as described in section 1. If the student has not established a case that appears to have merit, the Department Head will so inform the student and the instructor without delay.
4. If the case has merit, the Department Head will secure, from all parties, written statements and other such information as he or she deems helpful and will issue his or her findings and remedies, if any. In so doing, the Department Head will be guided by the principle the burden of proof lies with the student.
5. The instructor or the student may appeal the Department Head's decision (with respect to findings and remedies) to the Dean of the College in which the course is offered within 30 days of the date on which the Department Head offered his or her judgment.
6. Upon receipt of an appeal, the Dean will appoint a three-person advisory committee of faculty to hear the case. The chair of the committee will be from a department other than the one offering the course in question. The two remaining committee members will be from the department offering the course. One of these faculty members may be suggested by the author of the appeal. The instructor and the student may file additional statements. The committee will review all written materials and may seek other information, as they deem appropriate. After reviewing all information, the committee will communicate their findings and suggested remedies, if any, to the Dean.

7. The Dean is the final authority on issues of fairness in course evaluation. He or she will consider the recommendations of the committee but has wide latitude in resolving the matter.

The Dean too will be guided by the principle that the student must show the evaluation to have been unfair as identified in Section 1.

8. The Dean is responsible for notifying the Office of the Registrar of any decision requiring a change in records.
