COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

HIST 1302: A broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865. Note: Assignments will focus on reading, writing, and analysis.
Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Course Description

This class will introduce students to the important concepts in American history from Reconstruction to the Modern Day. The course will examine major historical concepts including race, class, gender, politics, economics, and cultures while also attempting to understand the ways that historical events affected the everyday lives of citizens.

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War, and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government, and the study of United States foreign policy.

Course Goal:

By the semesters end, students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the major events of the time and be able to recall basic facts and demonstrate a deeper understanding of the sequence of events in post-Reconstruction United States history.

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings

Required Texts: N/A

Optional Texts and/or Materials: The American YAWP

Primary sources for reading quizzes will be provided by the instructor.

Student Learning Outcomes

As a Core Curriculum requirement, this class focuses on four common Student Learning Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking - Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
- Oral/Visual Communication - Students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
- Personal Responsibility - Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
- Social Responsibility - Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Student Learning Outcomes will be assessed by the Student Responsibility Quiz and a Primary Source Analysis assignment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods and Assessment

Instructional Methods

Instruction will be primarily presented in lecture form and supplemented with primary source documents and class discussions.

Assignments, Student Responsibilities, Expectations, and Tips for Success

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Attending class and being attentive to class lectures will help the student succeed in this class. Making use of the study guides provided to prepare for the exams will also prove beneficial. Students will be responsible for obtaining any information missed due to absences. Students will also be responsible for completing online assignments in a timely manner.

Assessments

Exams:

There will be three exams for this course, including a non-comprehensive final exam. Each exam is worth 100 points and will include a multiple-choice section, a written short answer question, and an essay question. The exams will be based on class lectures and assigned readings from the reading quizzes. The two written portions of each exam will be completed online using Turnitin, while the multiple choice-portion will be completed online using MyLeo. Each exam will have a 72 hour window for students to complete the online portion.

Make-up Exams will consist exclusively of essays. Make-up exams must be set up with the instructor within a week of the absence.

Syllabus Quiz:

This quiz will be five questions based on the syllabus. This will count 10 points of the final grade.

Academic Honesty Quiz:

A ten question quiz based on the University's expectations of academic honesty. This will count 10 points toward the final grade.

Reading Quizzes:

There will be two reading quizzes over the course of the semester. Each quiz will consist of five open-ended questions and will count as 20 points of the final grade total. The assigned readings and their accompanying quizzes will be posted to MyLeo.

Video Quiz:

This quiz will be ten questions based on posted videos. This is 20 points of the final grade.

Discussion Boards:

There will be five discussion boards over the course of the class. The student will answer the discussion board questions using that week's lecture and any other resources provided by the instructor. The student will select one discussion board question to answer in 250-300 words and will then reply to two posts of their classmates in 75-100 words each.

Primary Source Analysis:

There will be four writing assignments over the course of this semester. This assignment asks students to analyze information, communicate clearly and effectively, and show awareness of social and civil issues or problems. Using the selected primary source document, students should write 1-2 paragraphs that: (1) identify the author/creator and context of the document (including when and where it was created); (2) consider the purpose of the document, including the author's goals in its creation and its intended audience; and (3) evaluate the document, analyzing why this document is important to help understand the historical period or the events it describes (its significance), and how the document contributes to our historical understanding of the period (historical causes and effect). The written analysis should be presented using full and complete sentences and proper grammar and punctuation.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Classroom/ Discussion Board Etiquette

All students will be held to a high level of professionalism. To this end, all discussions must be conducted in a professional, civil, and friendly manner, even when students are disagreeing with each other. There should be no name-calling, profanity, or disrespectful comments. Any student who does not follow these standards will not receive points for discussion and can be removed from the class. I strongly encourage you to develop true conversations in the Discussion Boards. By this, I mean do not post only enough to meet the minimum word-count. This is your opportunity to debate and discuss with your classmates; it is also an opportunity to ask each other questions. I will be monitoring discussions daily and expect more participation than simply trying to meet your word-count obligation.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to school administration.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

The majority of the student's interaction with the instructor will take place in the classroom at Community High School. The student can reach the instructor outside of class time using their provided TAMUC email.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the instructor's course policies or the conduct either of the instructor or a classmate should first consult with the instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concerns to the head of the History Department, Sharon Kowalsky (Sharon.Kowalsky@etamu.edu). If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, students may bring the issue to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students per procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Guide Book.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<http://www.etamu.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

AI Use Policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there may be legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructor's guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
