COURSE POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

LATE WORK

I understand that sometimes life's circumstances may prevent you from turning assignments in on time; therefore, late work will be accepted at a 30% penalty. If an emergency prevents you from submitting an assignment by the due date listed in the syllabus and you contact me before that due date, I will offer you an extended deadline and will waive the late penalty. Emergencies include personal hospitalization, hospitalization of immediate family members, death in the family, etc... Procrastination and other obligations (such as work or extracurriculars) are not extenuating circumstances. I reserve the right to ask for documentation.

The absolute last day to submit class work is December 10, 2025 at 11:59pm

Wrong Assignment Upload

For all assignments uploaded to D2L, students are responsible for checking to ensure that the document has successfully uploaded into the assignment portal. Also, students receive notification from D2L indicating when an assignment has been submitted.

Check your submission! Be certain that you have inserted the correct document for the assignment. Students may upload essays and other assignments multiple times when preparing for a deadline. However, once the assignment deadline has passed, incorrectly uploaded or missing assignments will be considered as late assignments. For every assignment, be sure to check that the appropriate document that you want graded is available for the professor by the due date/time.

Emailing Assignments:

The course is archived, so keeping a clear record of your performance on every assignment is essential. To ensure that your course work is available if any question should arise, assignments MUST be uploaded to the designated assignment portal for each assignment. Students must not email assignments to the professor. Emailed assignments will not be accepted and will be deleted immediately. If you are having difficulty uploading an assignment, please contact the student help desk for technical assistance.

Double Dipping or Recycling Assignments

Students may not use essays that have been written for another course. Even though you may be the originator of these materials, this is known as double dipping or recycling materials and is a form of plagiarism and academic dishonesty that will earn a zero. In other words, students are not allowed to submit the same work for more than one class.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

<https://inside.tamuc.edu/admissions/registrar/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf>.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum:

AI use policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
