Course Description

Independent Study. One to four semester hours. Individualized instruction/research at an advanced level in a specialized content area under the direction of a faculty member. May be repeated when the topic varies. Prerequisite: Consent of department head.

An experiential component in which future public school teachers design and implement curriculum and model the use of a variety of classroom assessment techniques. The resident teachers will use cutting edge technologies for both creating and assessing lessons. Special attention will center on the alignment of curriculum, instruction, and testing. Prospective teachers will achieve knowledge and skill by observing and assisting middle/secondary public school teachers in classroom situations.

The syllabus and/or schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Design and deliver lessons and assessments that are aligned to state standards.
2. Use a variety of tools to enhance instruction and assessment.
3. Use student-centered instructional models.
4. Integrate technology in curriculum and assessment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

This course requires basic computer, internet, email, and word processing knowledge.

Instructional Methods

This course involves field experience in a K-12 classroom. All assignments are field-based. Due to the independent nature of this course, the student is responsible for reaching out to the instructor if they have questions or concerns about the content.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

1. Complete activities by due dates.
2. Communicate concerns or issues with professor.
3. Use self-regulation skills to study, collaborate, reflect, and transfer knowledge.
4. Act like a teacher.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

The syllabus and/or schedule are subject to change.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

The best way to contact me is through email (you can email through D2L or directly to my email address). I contact students through D2L, so be sure to check the email address associated with D2L.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

AI Use

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

The syllabus and/or schedule are subject to change.
