COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

HIST 1302 examines the history of the United States from the end of Reconstruction to the present. The course will focus on major political and economic developments that shaped modern America. Topics include industrialization, immigration, westward expansion, U.S. imperialism, the World Wars, the Great Depression, the Cold War, the Civil Rights Movement, amongst others.

Students will also explore the experiences of African Americans, Native Americans, women, immigrants, and working-class communities, with attention to how power, inequality, and resistance shaped their lives. Through discussions and primary source analysis, students will gain a deeper understanding of how the post-Reconstruction era continues to influence American society today.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Course Policies

Attendance: Required. More than three unexcused absences may lower your final grade. Late Work: 10% deduction per day late. No work accepted more than 1 week late without prior approval.

Academic Integrity: Cheating or plagiarism will result in disciplinary action and a grade of zero for the assignment.

Technology: Laptops and tablets are welcome for notetaking or accessing course materials—no phones unless permitted.

Student Learning Outcomes

As a Core Curriculum requirement, this class focuses on four common Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Critical Thinking - Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Oral/Visual Communication - Students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Personal Responsibility - Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility - Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Student Learning Outcomes will be assessed by the Student Responsibility Quiz and a Primary Source Analysis assignment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods and Assessment

The minimal technical skills required for this course include using the learning management system, university email, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and ADOBE Express.

Assignments, Student Responsibilities, Expectations, and Tips for Success

The course requires a combination of two In-person tests, Student Responsibility Quiz, Primary Source Analysis assignment and a final exam

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Primary Source Analysis Assignment: This assignment asks students to analyze information, communicate clearly and effectively, and show awareness of social and civil issues or problems. Using the selected primary source document, students should write 1-2 paragraphs that: (1) identify the author/creator and context of the document (including when and where it was created); (2) consider the purpose of the document, including the author's goals in its creation and its intended audience; and (3) evaluate the document, analyzing why this document is important to help understand the historical period or the events it describes (its significance), and how the document contributes to our historical understanding of the period (historical causes and effect). The written analysis should be presented using full and complete sentences and proper grammar and punctuation.

Exams

This course will include two(midterm)essay exams and a Final exam, Primary source analysis and an Adobe Assignment. There are two reading quizzes that cover the text and lectures: Quiz due dates are listed on the calendar below, they will each be taken in person. Students must do their own work on the exam. Students should use assigned material only for the exam. Any use of unauthorized sources on the exams (including AI) will result in an automatic ZERO for the exam. The Final Exam will be completed on the Final Exam date listed in the Course Schedule. (The exams will be used to assess SLO 1-3.)

Student Responsibility Quiz (SRQ)

Finally, a Student Responsibility Quiz. Students will complete a Student Responsibility Quiz due in the second week of class (this will be counted as part of the primary source paper grade and will be used to assess SLO #4).

Grading breakdown:

- Quiz 1 10% (10 points)
- Quiz 2 10% (10 points)
- Primary source analysis: 5% (5points)
- Adobe Assignment: 10% (10 points)
- Responsibility Quiz: 5% (5 points)
- Exam 1: 10% (10 points)
- Exam 2: 10% (10 points)
- Final exam: 40% (40 points)
- (100 points total)

NB: Students are to be engaged with the class during Exam Week, whether by taking an exam on the scheduled exam day (see Exam Schedule on University Registrar's web page), or submitting a project, paper, assignment, etc.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies Interaction with Instructor Statement Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the instructor's course policies or the conduct either of the instructor or a classmate should first consult with the instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concerns to the head of the History Department, Sharon Kowalsky (Sharon.Kowalsky@etamu.edu). If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, students may bring the issue to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students per procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Guidebook.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

AI Use Policy

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there may be legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructor's guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities.
