COURSE INFORMATION

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings

Textbook: Foundations of Mental Health Promotion, 2nd edition Manoj Sharma, MBBS, PhD, MCCHES. You will be provided with the e-book within D2L. You do not need to purchase this text on your own, as the cost is included in the course fees. You should have first day access to the text. If you do NOT, let me know immediately.

Course Description: This course is designed to teach students about mental health and mental illness with a focus on medical, epidemiological, behavioral, sociological, political, historical, developmental, and cultural perspectives in the field. Students will be introduced to the field of mental health promotion, and both individual- and population-level approaches to handling mental health concerns are emphasized. At its core, we will discuss approaches to mental health promotion keeping cultural humility at the forefront within the context of the dual continuum model (languishing to thriving).

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the successful student should be able to:

- Define and describe and differentiate the concepts of mental health, mental disorder, and wellness.
- Describe and apply the Dual Continuum Model of mental health and mental illness.
- Discuss the tenets of health education and promotion and give examples or how to apply these tenets within the context of mental health.
- Identify the determinants of mental health and how those determinants impact individuals and communities.
- Define stress and discuss both the positive and negative consequences of stress.
- Describe the role of the DSM-V in the evaluation and diagnosis of mental disorders and substance use disorders.
- Identify and discuss several approaches to mental health and substance abuse treatment, including both pharmacological approaches and non-pharmacological approaches.
- Name and describe the national organizations that support the research, diagnosis, and treatment of mental health disorders.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students should have a basic knowledge of computer and Internet skills to be successful in this course. Here are some highlights:

1. Knowledge of terminology, such as browser, application, URL, etc.
2. Understanding of basic computer hardware and software; ability to perform computer operations, such as managing files and folders: save, name, copy, move, backup, rename, delete, check properties
3. Ability to use the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs, accessing, and navigating sites like YouTube
4. Knowledge of copying and pasting, spell-checking, saving files in different formats and sending and downloading attachments
5. Internet skills (connecting, accessing, using browsers) and ability to perform online research using various search engines and library databases.
6. Ability to use online communication tools, such as email (create, send, receive, reply, print, send/receive attachments), discussion boards (read, search, post, reply, follow threads), chats, etc.

Instructional Methods

This is an IN-PERSON course. Information will be delivered through a combination of resources such as the e-book, recorded lecture, in-person lectures, case studies and role play, PowerPoints, supplementary multimedia content, or reading materials. Quizzes, in-class discussion, projects and activities, can serve as assessment methods for this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

- Communicate effectively: Reach out via email or in person with any questions or concerns as soon as they arise. Waiting until the last moment may result in the issue not being resolved efficiently or effectively (or in the way that would have been best had we communicated earlier).
- Manage your time wisely: Prioritize tasks and allocate sufficient time for studying, completing assignments, and reviewing course material.
- Review all course materials: assessments will include information from both the e-book and any additional material provided in the modules. Make sure you review it thoroughly.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

Letter Grade / Point Value
A 900-1000
B 800-899
C 700-799
D 600-699
F 0-599

ASSESSMENTS

Chapter Readings:

Students are expected to read the assigned chapters and review all material in the modules for that week.

Syllabus Quiz (Module 0)	1 x 50	50
Introduction Discussion	1 x 50	50
Quizzes	4 x 50 points	200
Assignments	4 x 50 points	200
Participation Activities	12 x 12.5 points	150
Final Project	Part 1: 200 points Part 2: 100 points	300
Peer Review of Project Presentations (Part 1)	1 x 50 points	50
Total Points		1000

Syllabus Quiz (5%) & Intro Discussion (5%)—Must be completed by Wednesday, January 14th (Module 0)

Quizzes (20%)

Quizzes will consist of 10 to 15 questions each that cover chapter material. Quizzes are available on D2L each week. Quizzes may contain case studies or doing online research. These quizzes are untimed, and 2 attempts are given per quiz. There are four (4) quizzes.

Assignments (20%)

Assignments could consist of written work (reflections or research), podcasts, videos, slides, etc.

Participation Activities (15%)

In an effort to give online students the same opportunity to engage in topics the way in-person students do, there will be 1 participation activity for each of the 12 chapters. These activities will mirror what occurs in the in-person section and will be 5-20 minutes in duration, depending upon the topic.

Final Project/Presentation Showcase (30%)

There will be a final project on a mental health promotion topic of YOUR choice. The final project has 2 parts:

- Part 1: Mental Health Promotion/Call-to-Action Video (200 points)
- Part 2: Educational Research Write-up/Reflection (100 points)

Peer Review (5%)

You will provide peer reviews for your classmate's final projects.

LATE WORK: Late work only be considered under emergency circumstances.

AI USE POLICY

East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

For this course, the use of any form of AI for generating text, discussion boards, project information, and communication is prohibited and will be reported if used.

Students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
